PETITION.

Senator Dwyer presented the following petition, which was ordered printed in the Journal:

WHEREAS, The many proposed amendments to Article XIII of the Constitution on the subject of revenue taxation—now upwards of twenty—unmistakably evince the desire on the part of the people to remedy some of the many defects in our present absurd and oppressive tax system; and

WHEREAS, It is obvious from the number of these attempts that relief can never be had by the tedious, uncertain, and cumbersome mode of constitutional amendment; therefore,

Resolved, That we cordially approve of the amendment to Article XIII of the Constitution introduced in the Assembly by Mr. Keegan, of Sonoma, and in the Senate by Senator Bulla, of Los Angeles, having the purpose of making the subject of revenue and taxation one of legislative authority instead of constitutional restrictions, and earnestly urge every member of the Legislature, regardless of party ties or private considerations, to vote and work for the submission of said amendment to a vote of the people for adoption or rejection;

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions, attested by the secretary, be sent to Senator Lawrence J. Dwyer, with the request that he present the same to the Senate as the earnest petition of the Iroquois Club of San Francisco.

I, D. J. Gordon, recording secretary of the Iroquois Club of the City and County of San Francisco, do hereby certify the foregoing to be a full, true, and correct copy of the original resolutions unanimously adopted by said club at a regular meeting held February 12, 1897.

Your special committee was appointed under a resolution of the Senate, adopted on the 20th day of January, 1897, which reads as follows:

WHEREAS, Sound men are best qualified for passing sound laws, and the people of the State of California are vitally interested in the health and physical condition of legislators while engaged in their duties; be it

Resolved, That a special committee, consisting of the Lieutenant-Governor and two Senators, whom he may select and name, be and is hereby empowered to investigate into and inquire as to the necessity and utility of improving the sanitary conditions of this chamber, and they are directed to consult with the Secretary of State and report to this body on or before February 1st as to the best method for heating, ventilating, and improving the condition of said chamber, the cost thereof, and advantages to accrue therefrom.

In pursuance of this authority, and to present to the Senate and the people of this State the reasons for their action, your committee has held several meetings, at which they have invited the attendance of the City Engineer of Sacramento, the Secretary of State, and those familiar with the conditions of the Capitol, and have investigated the subject of the sanitation, heating, and ventilating of the Senate chamber and the Capitol building, in order that they might intelligently report to this body the conditions that exist, and suggest remedies for their alleviation.

We found that the Capitol was built at a time when little regard was paid to the sanitary condition of public structures or the comfort or health of the occupants. We found that there was no system of drainage provided for, for the building or grounds of the Capitol; that the sewage, resulting from the daily use of the building, was conducted by drains into a cesspool outside upon the grounds, where the sewage gathered for a long period of time, until artificially removed by pumps, and transported away in tanks, in a manner to endanger the health and welfare of the residents of the neighborhood. It was reported to us that this condition resulted in an annual threat to the health of the residents of the vicinity, and that the whole situation was such as to be a sad comment upon the manner of conducting public affairs.

We received estimates from the City Engineer's office of a proposed system of public sewers, which would afford an outlet to the drainage of the Capitol, and there is now proposed, by the City of Sacramento, the construction of a main sewer leading to the Capitol grounds, which will afford an outlet to the sewage of the Capitol, when the proposed improvements suggested in this report are brought about.

Senate Bill No. 371, introduced by Senator Doty, of Sacramento, is now before the Senate for action, and requires the expenditure of $2,500 for the drainage of the Capitol and the connection of the drainage system upon the Capitol grounds with the city system of sewers. This bill should be passed, as essential to the carrying out of the plan proposed in this report. It is only by beginning at the foundation that a proper remedy can be afforded to the existing conditions that now surround us. The mortality roll, and the amount of sickness, suffered by members of the Legislature and officials of the State, whose duties compel them to occupy the Capitol building, is so appalling that we deem it unwise to enter into details regarding the same. The odors and gases which exist in the basement and toilet-rooms of the building, and thence permeate throughout all the offices and other portions of the building, are a constant menace to the health and life of the occupants.

The manner of heating the chambers occupied by the legislators results in a superheated condition of the atmosphere, which subjects every one to conditions found in a Turkish bath; and as the temperature of the corridors and other portions of the building not thus heated is many degrees lower than that of the chambers in question, the result is that the shocks produced from meeting these opposing conditions act injuriously upon the circulation and endanger the health and lives of all.

The subject of the ventilation of this building has been agitated periodically at each session of the Legislature, and almost constantly by the resident officials since its erection, because of the discomfort and ill health its sanitary condition produces.

Respiratory diseases caused by foul and disease-laden air taken into the lungs, and influenza and la grippe brought on by exposure to sudden changes of temperature on going from overheated rooms into cold corridors, or drafts from open windows, also typhus and other fevers from improper drainage and sewerage, are so prevalent that the Capitol building, which, artistically and architecturally, is the pride of the State, is visited with dread apprehension by those whose duty calls them to business within its walls.

Your committee, after the investigations above set forth, have ascertained that the drainage and sewerage from the building should be connected with the city sewer system.

Consulting with the city authorities, they propose to extend the city sewerage system along Thirteenth Street to L Street next adjoining the Capitol grounds, and will meet all the expenses thereto, except that they ask the State to furnish the connection by lateral sewers from the building to the street main, and to pay its proportion of the expenses for the street 24-inch main, which passes the Capitol grounds on the east side to N Street, a distance of 512 lineal feet.

Estimated cost by City Engineer:

Main sewer, 812 lineal feet of 24-inch pipe, at $2 45.....	$1,989 40
8 lineal feet of 8-inch pipe, at 35 cents.....	2 80
2 manholes, at $36 50.....	73 00
	$2,065 20
Lateral connections:
870 lineal feet of 10-inch pipe, at 60 cents.....	$522 00
870 lineal feet of trench, to be refilled, at 80 cents.....	696 00
500 square feet of bitumen pavement, to be replaced, at 25 cents ...	125 00
3 manholes of brick, at $50.....	150 00
	<hr/>
	$1,493 00
Add ten per cent for the incidental expenses.....	149 30
	$1,642 30

With respect to the building itself, we are convinced that most thorough and radical measures should be taken; that the plumbing connected with the closets and the sanitary apparatus should be reconstructed from the ground up; and appliances used which will be of the best and most modern construction, and that the closets should be ventilated separately from the other ventilation of the building.

We are also convinced that every room in the building, including the basement, ought to be kept dry and healthful by a connected system of ducts to a fresh-air inlet from the outside. That the air should be kept circulating by a mechanical force or power used to pump a continuous supply of fresh air into the room or rooms, sufficient to properly ventilate the room and keep the same free from moisture or dampness under any degree of occupancy. Also, that a foul-air outlet be built from each room, and these ducts connected together with a mechanical force or exhaust blower to absolutely control the exhaust of foul air and its discharge above the roof. It is apparent to us that in no other way can any positive or satisfactory results be obtained. We would deprecate any half-way measures.

Appropriation should be sufficient to do good, and to interest and secure the best services of the most experienced sanitary engineers, and, when contracts are let, bidders should be required to furnish the most complete plans, specifications, guaranties, and bonds, that certain results may be obtained, and as nearly perfect and healthful conditions established in this building as the ingenuity of man has been able to devise or produce in public buildings.

It has been the experience in other places, where buildings have been equipped as above suggested, that not only is the average and general health of the occupants greatly improved, but the expense for fuel and cost of attendance and management greatly reduced.

When it is reflected that sound health is productive of good morals, the benefit to the individual and the State by thorough sanitation is clearly apparent.

It is the opinion and judgment of your committee that the work suggested in the foregoing report should be placed in charge of, and under the control of, the State Board of Capitol Commissioners, and that the sum of $50,000 will be sufficient appropriation for the work proposed; we therefore submit herewith a substitute for Senate Bill No. 419, and recommend that the same be adopted, and that Senate Bill No. 327 be withdrawn.

SEC. 13. For the purpose of aiding in the education and reformation of the girl inmates of this institution, the female teachers in the state normal school located at San José are hereby authorized and empowered to arrange a course of lectures and form classes in said institution, under the direction of the board of trustees of said The Santa Clara State School; such lectures and such classes not to infringe upon the duties now devolving upon such teachers, and the board of trustees of the said The Santa Clara State School shall fix a reasonable compensation to be paid such teachers, over and above any compensation they may receive as teachers in the said state normal school; provided, that such instruction by way of lectures and classes by such state normal school teachers shall not prevent or prohibit the board of trustees of said Santa Clara State School from providing for suitable teachers and proper instruction for said inmates of this institution.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR.

On motion of Senator Beard, the following message from the Governor was taken up and read:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA,
SACRAMENTO, February 19, 1897.

To the Senate and Assembly:

GENTLEMEN: The State Board of Trade, by its properly constituted committee has waited upon me and submitted a statement of the character of many of the immigration schemes projected by parties within the State, and of the injury which our legitimate interests have sustained abroad by the frequent misrepresentation of private parties seeking to trade upon the reputation and acknowledged merit of California. It is an acknowledged fact, with which you are doubtless familiar, that, while this State affords a wealth of opportunity for honest and productive investment, and offers an almost limitless variety of opportunities for the poor or wealthy home-seeker to satisfactorily establish himself, great injustice is done, and much hardship inflicted upon a large number of persons annually, who are lured within our State by dishonest promoters or speculators, and who are induced to pay high prices for barren, arid, or otherwise unproductive land.

Our State has honestly earned a reputation abroad as possessed of a peerless soil and climate, and it should be our concern, as it is our duty, to preserve that reputation untarnished and as a source of progress and an object of pride. I submit to you herewith the communication of the Committee of the State Board of Trade, which is self-explanatory. If you deem it wise to place some restriction or regulation upon immigration schemes, or if you desire to constitute some authority which shall pass upon their character or integrity by which investors abroad will be protected, I will be pleased to cooperate with you, hoping it will result in correcting serious evils which we know to exist. No additional expenditure need, however, be incurred for a new commission for the purpose outlined in the communication, as we already have in the State Board of Agriculture a body peculiarly fitted, by reason of their calling and general distribution throughout the State, for this purpose.

I submit this matter to your careful consideration.

JAMES H. BUDD, Governor.

SAN FRANCISCO, February 15, 1897.

Hon. JAMES H. BUDD, Governor of California, Sacramento, Cal.

DEAR SIR: Your Excellency is no doubt aware of the fact that in September last a report of the Consul-General residing in San Francisco and representing Great Britain in the consular service of that country was transmitted to Parliament. In general effect that report declared that for the most part the colonization schemes projected in this State were fraudulent and deceptive. The sovereign of Great Britain indorsed these statements sufficiently to cause the documents to be transmitted to the British Parliament, and the representations made therein have become, in a sense, the official expression of that Government.

Unfortunately for our State, the strictures contained in the document have, for the most part, a degree of justification in the facts of the case. There are now offered on the markets colony lands in which no intelligent Californian would invest. They are addressed to foreign ignorance and designed only for the attention and patronage of those whose lack of information makes them easy victims of dishonest immigration schemes. It is no part of the present purpose in addressing you to present or expose these schemes. We therefore content ourselves by the declaration of facts, for the verification of which we have ample evidence. The situation herein outlined calls for remedial measures.

In the first instance, the representation made by the Consul-General of Great Britain, and its official indorsement by the sovereign of that country, is a condemnation which, while intended only for the condemnation of fraudulent schemes, will necessarily be extended in its effects to the most beneficent and advantageous enterprises.

California, notwithstanding its age, is a country of large extent occupied by a relatively small population. Our condition is such as to make a reinforcement of our capital and population most desirable. We have natural resources which, when developed, will prove a rich reward to enterprise and intelligently directed capital. But our representations concerning these resources, and our presentation of the inducements they offer, are now very broadly discredited throughout the world.

If these representations were wholly false, if they had no foundation in fact, the case would be different; but unfortunately the evidence that many fraudulent schemes have been projected, and have resulted disastrously to those who were deceived by them, gives not only color but demonstration of fraud, which, as already indicated, will attach to all representations which may be made on behalf of our commonwealth.

This situation demands remedies. The first of these is to establish some instrumentality of an official character which will expose and denounce the projectors of fraudulent and deceptive colonization undertakings. In the next instance, the ordinary unofficial methods of the defense of the State against the broader inferences of the charges already made, and in part substantiated, are insufficient to the accomplishment of the purpose.

In times past the price of land in California has been high. The richest fruit lands in the State have been held at prices which no use to which they might be devoted would justify. The general farming lands of the State were held at prices which forbade all expectations of a reasonable return upon the capitalized investment.

These conditions have passed away. California in the past has presented an example wherein the price of its real estate was not correlated with the density of population. In all countries there has been a fixed relation of value between the soil, the original source of all wealth, and the density of population occupying the country embracing that soil. California for a long time appeared to be an exception to that rule; but it is no longer so. Very high prices for the farming and fruit lands of California are no longer obtainable, not even asked. The depressed state of business throughout the world has wrought its perfect work in California in the direction of eliminating false factors in all valuations. The average value of all classes of agricultural land in California is not to-day thirty per cent of that placed upon it during the decade between 1880 and 1890.

Men forego home ties, break up home relations, sever themselves from kindred and friends, only because they believe they can better their condition, financially, morally, and socially. The sober question which confronts us in inviting a reinforcement of our population is, Do the conditions of California in their financial, educational, religious, moral, and social aspects offer superior inducements to those existing in the more densely settled portions of our country? If they do not, then, in the very incipency of the case, an invitation extended to people to break their home ties and become citizens of our commonwealth is in its nature a deception.

We who address you in this communication, and the organization we represent, believe that California offers inducements superior to those of many more densely settled countries, and entertaining that opinion, we also entertain the belief that in inviting immigration to California we are conferring a favor not only upon this commonwealth, but upon those who accept the invitation. Never before the present time in the history of this State have the inducements to immigration been so great.

Men dispose of the property they have accumulated and make investments in new countries, in the hope of acquiring the ownership of property in the new location in advance of its developed value. They expect, as they have a right, that the increment of value on the property they purchase will reinforce their own industry and economy in acquiring wealth. For many years past this hope or expectation could not be realized with reference to California. The inflated prices at which the lands of the State were held forbade this expectation.

All this is changed. Lands are no longer held at values which anticipate development, and out of this grows the opportunity of reaping the reward of that enhancement which will necessarily ensue upon the more dense settlement of our State. All the conditions inviting immigration to this State have improved. The rate of transportation has a steadily downward tendency. The cost of living constantly declines. The original cost of planting an orchard has been very greatly diminished. A ripe experience as to the science of horticulture and agriculture affords guaranty against the costly mistakes of ignorance. In every aspect of the case, the invitation which the people of California can now extend to the home-seekers of the world has better justification than at any time in the history of the commonwealth. At this juncture, the reputation of our State as a desirable place for residence has received the broadest injury.

These matters are of the highest importance to the State of California. They are of even greater importance than the question of exhibiting the products of the State at Eastern or foreign expositions. We are confronted by a condition which will deny to us our due share of the immigration which seeks new homes each year.

The State Board of Trade, an organization composed of representatives from the various counties of the State, has had these matters under consideration, and has appointed the signers of this communication a committee to present the matter to your Excellency, accompanied by a petition that the facts herein presented be made the subject of a special message to the Legislature, accompanied by the recommendation that a Commission of Immigration be created and established, whose duty it shall be to institute inquiry into the character of all colonization schemes projected in this State, and to commend or condemn, according to the merit or demerit of such schemes.

The only adequate or effective defense the State can now make against the injurious representations which have received such high official indorsement, will be through the deliberate conclusions of an official body—one representing the Government of the State of California, and therefore charged with high accountability. The testimony of such an authority will be received, respected, and believed, while the representation of the voluntary immigration instrumentality will be regarded as partial, interested, and unreliable.

We, therefore, have the honor to petition that your Excellency present to the Legislature, in the form of a special message, such statement of the changed and improved conditions in this State as bear upon its natural resources, the opportunities of their development, and the general desirability of the State as a place of residence.

We also respectfully urge upon your thoughtful attention the suggestion herein made of the creation of a State Commission of Immigration, the function and office of which would be to protect the people of California against the injurious results of fraudulent schemes projected only in the interest of private speculation. All misrepresentation of this kind can work only injury to this commonwealth, and a State commission, composed of patriotic and honorable men, armed with the authority of the law, and representing in an official capacity the people of the State of California, would make only truthful representation; and with this high official indorsement, the truth concerning our State would be received and believed.

We forego further detail of outline, leaving to your better understanding of the subject and your better facility of suggestion the elaboration of the plan herein generally outlined.

By Senator Dickinson: Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 41—A resolution to propose to the people of the State of California an amendment to Section 18 of Article XI of the Constitution, in relation to revenue and taxation.

Referred to the Committee on Constitutional Amendments.

RESOLUTION—(OUT OF ORDER).

Senator Gleaves submitted the following resolution and moved its adoption:

Resolved, That the State Printer be and he is hereby directed to bind in volumes of two hundred bills each, all the Assembly and Senate bills, including amended and substitute bills, introduced at this session, except Assembly Bills Nos. 1 to 163, inclusive, which bills shall be bound in their present form.

On the adoption of the resolution, the ayes and noes were demanded by Senators Gleaves, Luchsinger, and Shippee.

The roll was called, and the resolution adopted by the following vote:

MESSAGES FROM THE ASSEMBLY.

On motion of Senator Wolfe, the following messages from the Assembly were taken up and read:

ASSEMBLY CHAMBER, SACRAMENTO, February 24, 1897.

MR. PRESIDENT: I am directed to inform your honorable body that the Assembly on the 24th day of February passed Assembly Bill No. 796—An Act to provide for the issue and sale or exchange of funding bonds of irrigation districts organized under and in pursuance of an Act of the Legislature of the State of California entitled "An Act to provide for the organization and government of irrigation districts, and to provide for the acquisition of water and other property, and for the distribution of water thereby for irrigation purposes," approved March 7, 1887, and to provide for the payment of such bonds.

Also: That the Assembly on the 24th day of February directed me to return to your honorable body Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 6, relative to suspending Joint Rule XLVIII, with a copy of the following motions by Mr. Dibble, which were this day adopted by the Assembly:

That Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 6 be returned to the Senate, and that the Senate be respectfully informed that the Assembly declines to consider the question of the right of a Senator to introduce a bill in the Senate.

Furthermore, that the Senate be respectfully informed that, in the opinion of the Assembly, the right of a member of either house to introduce a bill upon any matter, after fifty days from the commencement of the session, with the consent of two thirds of the members of the house in which such bill is offered by a member thereof, is a constitutional right which cannot be limited or controlled by a rule of either house or of a joint rule of the two houses; that in so far as Joint Rule XLVIII attempts to limit the right of a member to introduce a bill, as suggested, it is, in the opinion of the Assembly, absolutely void.

Also: That a message be sent to the Senate requesting a conference of the two houses, with the view of the immediate abrogation of Joint Rules XL and XLVIII, which are, in the opinion of the Assembly, unconstitutional and void, in that they attempt to limit the constitutional prerogatives of the separate houses in the matter of the consideration and passage of bills, and the constitutional prerogative of the members of the two houses in the matter of the introduction of bills.

S. J. DUCKWORTH, Chief Clerk.
By W. G. HAWKETT, Assistant.

REPORTS OF SAN LUIS OBISPO VISITING COMMITTEE.

SENATE CHAMBER, SACRAMENTO, February 24, 1897.

MR. PRESIDENT: Your sub-committee appointed to visit San Luis Obispo and report upon the feasibility of locating a polytechnic school at that place; also, the site for the proposed Reform School for Girls at Santa Clara, the State Normal School at San José, and the State Asylum for the Insane at Agnews, beg leave to report as follows:

The citizens of San Luis Obispo are fully awake to the necessity of such a school as is sought to be established by the bill now pending. They are unanimous in their desire for it and are liberal in their offers of assistance in the founding of the school. Several sites of from five to ten acres each are offered without expense to the State, and the beautiful Hotel Ramona can, your committee is assured, be secured at a very reasonable figure. From the facts presented to and the observations made by your committee, it is of the opinion that the location is in every way desirable, and they recommend that the bill do pass.

In regard to the property of the State at Santa Clara, to which it is proposed to transfer the girls from the Whittier Reform School, your committee is of the opinion that the property is not desirable for the purpose. The buildings now on the property are in a very bad condition, and could not be made habitable without the expenditure of a very large amount of money, and they would even then be merely a makeshift. There is also more land than can be utilized by the Reform School. We advise the sale of the property, and that the proceeds be applied toward the construction of a suitable building for the Reform School at some proper place in the State.

The State Asylum for the Insane at Agnews was found to be in good condition. Many improvements have been made about the property, in which the labor of the patients has been employed to advantage. The male wards are very much overcrowded. An appropriation of $22,000 is asked for the construction of two cottages, to accommodate fifty-five convalescent patients in each cottage. The Trustees agree that if the appropriation for construction is granted, they will furnish the buildings from their contingent fund. It is proposed to erect these cottages at some distance from the main buildings, in order that convalescent patients may be removed as far as possible from the sights and sounds which have a tendency to retard their recovery. An appropriation is also asked for sinking a gas well, to furnish fuel for the institution. This would be largely a matter of experiment, although some indications of gas have been found here. We believe the management of the institution to be all that could be desired, and that its business affairs are conducted in a careful and economical manner.

SMITH, for the Committee.

Also:

SENATE CHAMBER, SACRAMENTO, February 24, 1897.

Railroad fares.....	$141 40
Hotel bills, including incidentals, as street car fares, telegraphing, typewriting, etc.....	173 60
Total.....	$315 00

Therefore, be it resolved, That the Controller be and is hereby directed to draw his warrant in favor of S. C. Smith, Chairman of said sub-committee, for the sum of $315, said warrant to be drawn upon the fund for the contingent expenses of the Senate, and the Treasurer is directed to pay the same.

APPROVAL OF JOURNAL.

The Journal of Wednesday, February 24, 1897, was approved.

MEMORIAL TO THE SENATE.

The following memorial was presented by the President, and ordered printed in the Journal:

To the President of the Senate of California:

A bill is before the Legislature to limit the output of brooms from the Home for Adult Blind to the supply required for the State institutions.

This proposition is based upon the statement that the product of the blind mechanics is injurious to the outside broom shops. Dealing with the adult blind is everywhere a difficult problem. The average age at which they lose vision is far past the time of life at which men acquire trades when in possession of all their faculties. The blind are handicapped in learning a handicraft, not only by the age at which they must begin, but by absence of sight. Under such circumstances the instances are few in which they become full producers. There may be sixty persons in the Blind Home who are steady workers. Their average output is about one third that of whole men, so that their product is equal to that of twenty whole men. Is it not a reflection upon our trade and manufactures to say that in any branch the product of twenty men is a disturbing element?

Before the Home had been brought to efficiency by the management of a blind mechanic and merchant, we imported brooms largely from the East. After that time not only the home shop, but many private shops, were required to supply the home market, and importations were lessened.

Those who have not been in contact with the problem may well fail to understand the necessity of occupation to the moral and physical welfare of those who lose their eyes in adult age. The cause of that loss in a majority of cases may be traced to the prior industry and activity of the loser. Miners, active toilers in unskilled labor, mechanics in the lines which require use of the sight upon minute objects and machinery, are usually the sufferers. Their accustomed labors are impossible without sight, and without occupation they are preyed upon by introspection and lapse into disorders of mind and body. The Home furnishes many impressive illustrations of the unspeakable benefit of employment, which draws the blind out of themselves and gives them a cheerful sense of usefulness in the world.

To limit the output of the Home to the needs of the State institutions will destroy its intended benefit to the unfortunate, for it can produce a year's supply for the State in one month. The evil wrought by eleven months' non-occupation will not be compensated by the benefit to outside manufactures, which will be inappreciably small.

It is idle to talk of substituting other activities for broom-making. That ground has been traversed for a century, and the experience of all such institutions, here and in Europe, confirms broom-making as the handicraft which the adult blind are best fitted to acquire and in which they find the occupation best suited to their condition. So, while there is no objection to experiment with other vocations, if broom-making is abolished or limited to an inadequate field, the usefulness of this most deserving and beneficial institution will be destroyed.

In behalf of its sightless inmates, I appeal to the Legislature to defeat the proposed measure.

JOHN P. IRISH.

ON ATTACHÉS, CONTINGENT EXPENSES, AND MILEAGE.

SENATE CHAMBER, SACRAMENTO, February 26, 1897.

MR. PRESIDENT: Your Committee on Attachés, Contingent Expenses, and Mileage, to whom was referred the following resolution:

WHEREAS, Ed M. Skinner was on the 6th day of January, 1897, appointed a Messenger to the Committee on Judiciary, at a salary of $4 per day; and

WHEREAS, He entered in and upon the discharge of his duties as such Messenger on the 10th day of January, 1897; and

WHEREAS, By omission he has not been paid for services rendered by him as such Messenger on the 10th, 11th, 12th, 13th, and 14th of January; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Controller be and is hereby directed to draw his warrant in favor of Ed M. Skinner, Messenger, for the sum of $20, as payment for five days' services as such Messenger, rendered by him as aforesaid.

Have had the same under consideration, and find that, while Mr. Skinner was appointed Messenger to the Committee on Judiciary on January 6th, yet his duties did not actually begin until said committee was appointed, which was on January 11, 1897; that through an error in the Journal of January 6th (wherein it should have stated that appointments of Committee Messengers to assume their respective duties on January 11th), his name was entered on the payroll, and a warrant was drawn in his favor for $16, presumably for January 6th, 7th, 8th, 9th, when no service could have been rendered at the time, as no such committee was then appointed.

On January 11th Mr. Skinner actually began work, and on January 16th a warrant was duly drawn in his favor for $8, which amount, together with $16, the former warrant (issued under erroneous information), amounted to $24, the full sum he was entitled to for actual services rendered from January 11th to January 16th, inclusive. We find that Mr. Skinner has been paid for all services rendered, and therefore we respectfully report the said resolution back, and recommend that it be not adopted.

HOLLOWAY, Chairman.

AYES—Senators Aram, Dwyer, Flint, Franck, Gillette, Gleaves, Henderson, Holloway, Jones, La Rue, Linder, Luchsinger, Morehouse, Pedlar, Seawell, Shippee, Smith, Stratton, Toner, Trout, Voorheis, Withington, and Wolfe—23.

ELECTIONS AND OFFICERS.

Chapter I—Elections.

SECTION 1. The provisions of all general laws governing elections for State and county officers not inconsistent with the provisions of this charter are hereby adopted as the law governing city elections, and the Mayor and Common Council and the City Clerk respectively shall exercise the powers and perform the duties conferred or imposed by law on Boards of Supervisors and County Clerks concerning elections.

SEC. 2. The Mayor and Common Council shall prepare and submit to the qualified electors of the city for adoption, at a general or special election, a proposition embodied in an ordinance regulating primary elections within the city to choose delegates to city conventions held to nominate candidates for city offices, and until such proposition embodied in an ordinance has been adopted by a majority of the qualified voters voting at such election, a candidate for an office to be filled at a city election can be nominated only in the manner provided in Section 1188 of the Political Code.

SEC. 3. The City Clerk shall not file, or cause to be printed in the official ballots to be used at the polls, any nomination made otherwise than as provided in said section of the Political Code, until a proposition formulated by an ordinance governing primary elections within the city is adopted by vote of the qualified electors.

SEC. 4. The Mayor and Common Council shall provide for holding all city elections. The boundaries of the precincts shall remain as fixed for the election for state and county officers at the last general election preceding a city election, unless changed by ordinance of the Mayor and Common Council. Each inspector, judge, and clerk of election shall receive three dollars for his services.

The election returns from each precinct shall be filed with the City Clerk, who shall immediately place the same in the vaults of the City Clerk's office, and no person shall be permitted to handle, inspect, examine, or in any manner interfere with the same until canvassed by the Common Council.

On the second day after a city election the Mayor and Common Council shall canvass said returns and declare the result. If two persons receive an equal number of votes for the same office, except the office of Mayor, the Common Council shall, by ordinance, select one of such persons to fill the office until the next general city election.

SEC. 5. After the result of an election is declared, or when an appointment is made, the City Clerk, under his hand and official seal, shall issue a certificate thereof and serve the same by depositing it with postage prepaid in the post office, addressed to the person elected or appointed; and within ten days thereafter, if the office be accepted, such person shall file the certificate with the oath of office attached, in the office of the City Clerk. When an official bond is required it shall be approved and filed within twenty days after the certificate of election is issued.

SEC. 6. The first election for city officers under this charter shall be held on the second Monday in April, 1898. The officers elected at that time shall take office immediately, and, except the members of the Common Council, shall hold until July, 1900. All charter elections, subsequent to the first, shall be held biennially on the third Monday in May, and the officers elected shall take office on the first Monday in July following their election; and except members of the Common Council, shall hold for two years and until their successors are elected and qualified. If this charter shall not be approved by the Legislature at its thirty-second session, the first election shall be held on the second Monday in April, 1899, and the officers elected shall take office immediately, and except members of the Common Council, shall hold until July, 1901. All general municipal elections, subsequent to the first, shall be held biennially on the third Monday in May, and the officers elected shall take office on the first Monday of July following their election, and, except members of the Common Council, shall hold for two years and until their successors are elected and qualified.

SEC. 7. The approval of this charter by the Legislature at its thirty-second session shall not work a vacancy in office, but all persons who, at the time of such approval, hold any city office which by this charter is made elective, shall continue to hold until the end of the term for which they were elected.

From and including the second Monday in April, 1897, to the second Monday in April, 1898, and until their successors are elected or appointed and qualified, the four School Trustees and the four Councilmen whose term of office would expire in April, 1898, shall constitute the Board of Education and the Common Council, respectively.

SEC. 8. On the second Monday in April, 1897, the Mayor, with the consent of the Common Council, shall appoint a City Clerk, who shall be ex officio Assessor, four Trustees of the Free Public Library, and one member of the Board of Health, to hold office for one year, and until their successors are elected or appointed and qualified.

SEC. 9. At the first election for city offices held under the provisions of this charter, and biennially thereafter at the general municipal elections, there shall be elected a Mayor, Treasurer, City Clerk, and five Councilmen. The Mayor, Treasurer, and City Clerk shall hold for a term of two years; but the same person shall not be eligible for election as Mayor for more than two consecutive terms.

Of the Councilmen, four shall be elected for the wards—that is, one for each ward—and one at large. The nominations of Councilmen for wards shall be made by the respective wards, and the person nominated shall be a resident of the ward for which he is chosen. Nominations for Councilmen at large shall be from the city at large. The certificates of nomination shall show whether the person is nominated at large or by ward, and in the latter case the name of the ward for which he stands. The official ballots shall be made to correspond. All candidates for Councilmen, whether at large or from the wards, shall be voted for by the electors of the entire city without respect to wards; and the nominee in each ward having the highest number of votes shall be declared the Councilman-elect from that ward.

The members of the Common Council chosen at the general municipal election in 1898, if prior to that time this charter shall have been approved by the Legislature, shall so classify themselves by lot that three of them shall hold from the date of their election and qualification to the first Monday in July, 1902, and two of them from the date of their election and qualification to the first Monday in July, 1900. If the first general municipal election be not held until April, 1898, the Councilmen elected shall so classify themselves that three of them shall hold from the date of their election and qualification to the first Monday in July, 1903, and two of them from the date of their election and qualification to the first Monday in July, 1901.

At each election after the first general municipal election, Councilmen shall be elected to succeed those whose terms are about to expire, and they shall hold office for four years.

SEC. 10. At the first municipal election after this charter has been approved by the Legislature, there shall be elected fourteen qualified electors of the city, who, with the Mayor-elect, shall constitute an Appointing Board, to appoint the first members of the following boards of city officers, to wit: a Board of Health, Board of Education, Board of Free Public Library Trustees, Board of Park Commissioners, and Board of Police and Fire Commissioners.

Within ten days after the notice of their election the members of the Appointing Board shall file their certificates of election with the oath of office attached in the office of the City Clerk, and shall, within ten days after their qualification, at the call of said Mayor, stating the time and place, assemble and appoint the said several boards of city officers. At least eight affirmative votes shall be required for an appointment.

Each board appointed shall consist of five members. The City Clerk shall be ex officio secretary of said Appointing Board, and keep a journal of its proceedings, which said journal shall be filed in the office of the City Clerk when said board finally adjourns.

The persons so appointed shall take office on the first Monday of July succeeding their appointment and shall become the legal members of said boards to which they were appointed, with all the powers and duties conferred or imposed by law or ordinance on such boards respectively.

When all appointments have been made, and the appointees have qualified, the Appointing Board shall become functus officio. The members of the respective boards above enumerated shall so classify themselves by lot that the terms of office of the members shall expire in the manner following, that is to say: one member of the Board of Free Public Library Trustees shall go out of office at the end of the first year, one at the end of the second, one at the end of the third, and two at the end of the fourth year from the date on which they took office.

Of the Board of Education, two members shall go out of office at the end of the first year, one at the end of the second, one at the end of the third, and one at the end of the fourth year from the date on which they took office; of the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners, one member shall go out of office at the end of the first year, two at the end of the second, one at the end of the third, and one at the end of the fourth year from the date on which they took office; of the Board of Park Commissioners, one member shall go out of office at the end of the first year, one at the end of the second, two at the end of the third, and one at the end of the fourth year from the date on which they took office; of the Board of Health, one member shall go out of office at the end of the first year, one at the end of the second, one at the end of the third, and two at the end of the fourth year from the date on which they took office.

All appointees to said boards, subsequent to those made by the Appointing Board, shall hold for a term of four years.

As the terms of the members of the several boards shall expire, the Mayor shall fill the vacancies by appointment, and the appointees shall hold for four years.

SEC. 11. An office becomes vacant when the incumbent thereof dies, resigns, is adjudged insane, convicted of felony, or of an offense involving a violation of official duty, or is removed from office or ceases to be a resident of the city, or neglects to qualify by taking the oath of office and filing his official bond within the time prescribed by law or this charter, or shall absent himself from the city for more than fifteen days consecutively, without leave of the proper authority. The Mayor and Common Council shall not grant a leave of absence for a period longer than sixty days, in any case, except for the purpose of transacting official business.

A vacancy in any appointive office shall be filled for the unexpired term, by the board or officer having power under this charter to fill the office by appointment, at the end of the term in which the vacancy occurs.

Chapter II—Bonds and Salaries.

SECTION 1. Officers of the city, before entering upon the discharge of their official duties, and within twenty days after notice of their election or appointment, shall execute to said city such official bonds as may be required by law, ordinance, or this charter. When the amount of any bond is not fixed by law, ordinance, or this charter, and power to fix the same is not herein conferred upon any board or officer, it shall be fixed by ordinance. All bonds shall be approved by the Mayor and filed with the Clerk, and shall be recorded by the City Clerk in a book entitled "Official Bonds," and kept for that purpose, except the bond of the City Clerk, which shall be filed with the Mayor after being so recorded. The approval of every official bond must be indorsed thereon and signed by the officer approving the same, after the examination of the sureties as hereinafter provided.

Every bond shall be made payable to the City of San José and contain a condition that the principal will faithfully perform all official duties then or that may thereafter be imposed upon or required of him, and that at the expiration of his term of office he will surrender to his successor all property, books, papers, and documents that may come into his possession as such officer. Said bond must be executed by two or more sureties, but when the amount of the bond is more than five thousand dollars the sureties may become severally liable for portions of not less than twenty-five hundred dollars; when there are more than two sureties, said sureties may justify in an amount which, in the aggregate, shall equal double the amount of said bond. The Mayor and Common Council may require the Treasurer to give a surety-company bond, in which case the expense of such bond shall be borne by the city.

SEC. 4. Every surety upon an official bond must justify in the manner prescribed by the Political Code of this State for official bonds.

SEC. 5. When an official bond is required of an officer the Mayor and Common Council may require an additional bond if, in their opinion, the original bond or any surety thereto becomes insufficient. If such additional bond be not given forthwith, the Mayor and Common Council must declare the office vacant, and thereupon it shall become vacant.

All meetings of the Common Council shall be public, and the regular meetings shall be held on each Monday in the month, unless that day be a legal holiday, when the meetings shall be held on the following day. Adjournments may be taken from a meeting to a day certain, and in such case the adjourned meeting shall be deemed a continuance of the session.

SEC. 6. The Mayor shall preside at all meetings of the Common Council, but shall not be entitled to vote. In the absence of the Mayor from a meeting, the Common Council may choose one of their own number to preside, who shall retain the right to vote upon all questions under consideration, and shall have the same power to disapprove any order made by the Common Council, and with like effect, as the Mayor would have had if present at the meeting.

Eighteenth—To maintain public schools and free public libraries.

Nineteenth—To sell or otherwise dispose of any or all the property of the city; provided, that none of said property shall be mortgaged or hypothecated for any purpose. No park or reservation shall be sold or leased, except a portion of the city reservation, or Alum Rock Park, may be leased for hotel purposes only, not exceeding two and one half acres, for a term of not more than twenty-five years, but no such lease shall in any manner restrict or interfere with the free use of the waters and grounds of the park by the public. The lessee shall be required by the terms of the lease to erect hotel buildings at a cost of not less than twenty-five thousand dollars. Said lease shall further provide that the premises leased and the business conducted thereon shall at all times be subject to such rules and restrictions as may be prescribed by the Park Commissioners. Any violation of the conditions of said lease shall constitute a forfeiture thereof, and the Mayor and Common Council shall enforce such forfeiture by proper proceedings.

Twentieth—To prescribe by ordinance the duties of all officers whose duties are not defined by this charter, and to prescribe, for any officer, duties other than those herein prescribed.

ARTICLE IV.

REVENUE.

SECTION 1. On or before the last Monday in July in each year the City Clerk shall transmit to the Mayor and Common Council, accompanied with the estimates and reports of each department, an estimate of the probable necessities of the city government for the fiscal year, stating the amount required to meet the interest and principal on all bonded or funded indebtedness of the city, together with the amount needed for the salaries and probable wants of all the departments of the municipal government in detail, showing specifically the necessities of each fund in the treasury. Such estimate shall also show what amount of income and revenue will probably be collected from fines, licenses, and other sources of revenue, exclusive of taxes upon property, and what amount will probably be required to be levied and raised by taxation in order to meet the necessities of each specific fund for such fiscal year.

SEC. 2. The Mayor and Common Council shall have full power and authority to assess and levy and collect taxes upon all taxable property in the city; provided, the maximum rate of taxation shall not exceed in any one year $1 upon each $100 valuation of property assessed, exclusive of the amount necessary to pay the principal and interest on the bonded indebtedness of the city.

SEC. 3. The Mayor and Common Council on or before the first Monday of February, 1898, and annually thereafter while any valid law exists for the assessment and collection of city taxes by officers of the County of Santa Clara, shall pass an ordinance electing to avail the City of San José of the provisions of an Act entitled "An Act to provide for the levy and collection of taxes by and for the use of municipal corporations and cities incorporated under the laws of the State of California, except municipal corporations of the first class, and to provide for the consolidation and abolition of certain municipal offices, and to provide that their duties may be performed by certain officers of the county, and fixing the compensation to be allowed for such county officers for the service so rendered to such municipal corporations," approved March 27, 1895, and shall cause a certified copy of such ordinance to be filed with the Auditor of said County of Santa Clara. If said Act shall be amended, or some other law be substituted in its stead, providing for the assessment and collection of city taxes by county officers, the Mayor and Common Council shall conform to the provisions of such amended Act or such law, in order to avail the city of the privilege of having its taxes assessed and collected by such county officers.

Until an ordinance shall be passed as aforesaid to avail the city of the privilege of having its taxes assessed and collected by the officers of said county, the City Clerk shall be ex officio Assessor; the City Treasurer in office when this charter is adopted shall be ex officio Tax Collector until the expiration of his term for which he was elected; they shall perform respectively the duties and have all the powers prescribed by law or ordinance for Assessors and Tax Collectors. While the city avails itself of the privilege of having its taxes assessed and collected by the county officers, the offices of City Assessor and City Tax Collector shall be abolished, but may be restored by ordinance when it becomes necessary or expedient so to do.

The taxes so levied and collected shall be apportioned by the Treasurer to the several specific funds.

SEC. 4. Subject to the provisions of Section 3 of this article, the Mayor and Common Council shall have power, and it is hereby made their duty, to provide by ordinances for the levying and collecting of all city taxes, and in so doing shall be governed by the State laws in reference to the levying and collecting of State and county taxes, as far as applicable, and all sales and conveyances of property made and executed for the non-payment of delinquent taxes shall have the same force and effect as when made and executed for the non-payment of delinquent taxes levied for State and county purposes. Said taxes so levied shall be a lien against the property assessed, and said lien shall attach as of the first Monday of March, at 12 m. of each year.

SEC. 5. Whenever the Mayor and Common Council shall, by ordinance, determine that the public interest or necessity demands the acquisition, construction, or completion of any municipal improvement, the cost of which would be too great to be paid out of the ordinary annual income and revenue of the city, the Mayor and Common Council is hereby given the power and authority to call a special election and submit to the qualified voters of the city the proposition of incurring indebtedness to pay the cost of such improvement set forth in said ordinance. If said proposition be accepted by a two-thirds vote of the qualified electors voting at such election, the Mayor and Common Council may issue bonds of said city in evidence of said indebtedness; provided, that such indebtedness, together with the unpaid and outstanding bonded indebtedness actually existing at the time such proposition is submitted to said voters, shall not exceed five hundred thousand dollars.

ARTICLE V.

FINANCE.

Chapter I—Limit to Expenditure.

SECTION 1. It shall not be lawful for the Common Council, or any department of the city government having power to incur, authorize, or contract liabilities against the treasury, to incur, authorize, or contract any expenditure or demand against any of the specific funds in the treasury which, taken with all other expenditures, indebtedness, or liability made or incurred up to the time in the quarter of making or incurring the same, shall exceed one-fourth part of the money provided for such expenditure, indebtedness, or liability (actually collected and paid into the treasury) as and for the income and revenue for the fiscal year in which such liability, expense, or demand is incurred, and apportioned to the specific fund to be charged therewith.

SEC. 2. If at the end of any quarter any money remains unexpended in any of the specific funds, and which might lawfully have been expended during such quarter, such unexpended sum or sums, except so much thereof as may be requisite to pay all unpaid claims upon such specific fund that are outstanding, shall be carried forward in the same specific fund and expended by order of the Common Council, or of the department having the fund in charge, in any succeeding quarter of the same fiscal year, but not afterwards, except in payment of claims lawfully incurred during such fiscal year.

SEC. 3. All contracts, appropriations, allowances, payments, or liabilities to pay made in violation of the provisions of this chapter shall be absolutely void, and shall never be the foundation or basis of a claim against the treasury. All members of the Common Council and of each board and department of the city government are charged with notice of the condition of the treasury, and of the extent of the demand against the same, and any member violating the provisions of this chapter shall forfeit the office which he holds, unless he was not present when such liability was incurred, or if present, caused his dissent therefrom to be entered on the minutes at the time.

SEC. 4. In case of great calamity, casualty, or other unforeseen occurrence, by which the enforcement of the provisions of this chapter would be detrimental to the public interests, the Common Council, or any board or department of the city, by unanimous vote of the members constituting the Common Council or such board or department, may, by resolution, specifying the reasons, suspend the operation of the provisions of this chapter for a period not exceeding three months; but such resolution shall have no effect unless the Mayor indorse his approval thereon.

SEC. 5. The operation of the provisions of this chapter requiring the revenue for the fiscal year to be actually paid into the treasury before any expenditure can be made or liability incurred against any specific fund shall be suspended if, at the beginning of the first fiscal year after the adoption of this charter, there shall not be sufficient money in said several funds, added to what would be available from other sources, to meet all legal demands against the treasury for the first five months of said fiscal year. In such case the Mayor and Common Council shall create a fund to be known as the cash-basis fund, for the purpose of putting the payment of the running expenses of the city government upon a cash basis, and to be used for no other purpose, and annually thereafter, until the purpose for which said fund was created has been accomplished, shall, at the time of levying other city taxes, levy not less than five cents on the one hundred dollars assessed valuation of property for such fund. This tax of five cents shall be within the one-dollar limit fixed by this charter in section 2 of the article on revenue. The money thus collected shall be allowed to accumulate in said fund until it shall be sufficient, together with the money already in said specific funds, to meet all legal demands against such funds for the first five months of the next succeeding fiscal year. At the beginning of said fiscal year the Mayor and Common Council shall direct the Treasurer to apportion, and the Treasurer shall apportion, the money in said fund to the several specific funds in like manner as other moneys are apportioned. When the money in said fund is so apportioned, said cash-basis fund shall be abolished, no further levy as provided in this section shall be made, and the said suspended provisions of this chapter shall thereafter become and continue in full force and effect.

Chapter II—Payment of Claims.

SECTION 1. Every claim and demand against the city, except bonds, coupons for interest, claims payable from the school fund, or from funds not controlled by the Mayor and Common Council, shall be verified and filed with the City Clerk, specifying in detail the goods furnished, the service performed, or other basis of the claim, and by what authority the goods were furnished or the service performed, giving date of the same, and the amount of the claim.

SEC. 2. After allowance by the Common Council, the City Clerk shall present such claim or demand to the Mayor, who, within five days thereafter, shall indorse thereon or annex thereto his approval or disapproval, and return it to the City Clerk. The Mayor may approve a claim in part, but where a claim is disapproved, in whole or in part, the reasons of the Mayor must be given in full. The Common Council, by the affirmative votes of four of its members, may allow a claim or such portion of a claim as the Mayor has disapproved, but not otherwise.

SEC. 3. Upon the allowance of any claim a warrant shall be drawn on the City Treasurer in favor of the person to whom the allowance was made, specifying for what the warrant is drawn, the fund out of which it is to be paid, and that it can be paid only from the money actually collected and in the fund. The warrant shall be signed by the Mayor and countersigned by the City Clerk.

SEC. 4. Every claim against funds in the city treasury which may have been incurred or authorized by the Board of Education, the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners, the Board of Health, the Board of Park Commissioners, or the Trustees of the Free Public Library, shall be verified and presented to the board incurring or authorizing the indebtedness, who shall approve or disapprove the claim. It shall require at least three members voting in the affirmative to approve any claim. The president and secretary of the board or commission must certify the fact of such allowance, together with the amount allowed, the date of allowance, the name of the person or persons to whom the allowance is made, and the nature of the claim, to the City Clerk, who shall present the same to the Mayor for his approval, and upon its being approved, the City Clerk shall draw a warrant on the City Treasurer on the proper fund in payment of the same, which warrant must be signed by the Mayor and countersigned by the City Clerk. If the Mayor, within five days after presentation to him of the certificate of allowance as aforesaid, refuses to approve all or any portion of the claim so certified, or any item of a claim allowed, he must indorse his disapproval on the certificate and briefly give his reasons therefor.

He must also transmit to the board or commission allowing the claim a statement of the fact of his refusal to approve the claim or any portion thereof, and his reasons therefor. The claim or any portion thereof so disapproved can only be passed and ordered paid by the affirmative votes of four members of the board or commission from whom the authority for the claim was derived.

SEC. 5. To all claims there shall be attached, before filing, the affidavit of the claimant that the supplies or materials for which the charge is made have been furnished in quantity and quality, according to contract, and that the service has been rendered as ordered.

SEC. 6. No claim for commodities furnished or service performed shall be valid unless, prior to furnishing such commodities or the rendition of the service, authority for the same was given by the Common Council or some department of the city government having authority so to do.

No member of the Common Council or member of any department, and no city officer, shall have power to create any indebtedness against the city, or to furnish the basis of a claim, without said authority. A violation of this section shall be a misdemeanor.

No supplies, materials, or other item of expenditure for an amount exceeding $100, shall be ordered or purchased by the Mayor and Common Council or any board or department of the city authorized to incur any expenditure, except after first advertising for sealed proposals, and awarding a contract to the lowest and best bidder. Each proposal must be accompanied by a certified check in an amount not less than ten per cent of the sum bid, which check must be forfeited to the city upon the failure of the person, firm, or corporation bidding to enter into the contract awarded. All contracts awarded by the Mayor and Common Council shall be by ordinance or resolution. A sufficient bond payable to the city, with two or more sureties, shall be required to secure a faithful performance of each contract awarded.

Chapter III--Of the Several Funds.

SECTION 1. The revenue paid into the treasury shall be at once apportioned by the Treasurer and be kept in separate specific funds as hereinafter provided, and it shall not be lawful to transfer money from one fund to another, or use the same in payment of demands upon another specific fund, except temporarily in payment of the principal or interest of the present bonded indebtedness.

SEC. 2. The several interest and sinking funds in the treasury authorized by law at the time this charter takes effect shall continue therein so long as there shall be occasion therefor, and the moneys therein, or which may belong thereto, shall not be used or appropriated for any purpose other than that for which the same were raised.

SEC. 3. There shall be opened by the Treasurer the following specific funds, to wit: School Fund, Police Fund, Street Light Fund, Street Contingent Fund, Sewer Fund, Fire Department Fund, Health Department Fund, Park Improvement Fund, Library Fund, and General Fund.

The Mayor and Common Council, at the time of making the annual tax levy, shall levy for each of said specific funds an amount sufficient to meet the necessary expenditures therefrom. Said funds shall consist of moneys so levied and of such other moneys as may properly be apportioned thereto. In addition there shall be apportioned to the school fund all moneys arising from the sale, rent, or exchange of school property. The amount of money levied for grammar and primary schools shall be paid by the City Collector into the county treasury to the credit of the city school fund; to the park improvement fund all moneys accruing from rents of grounds, permits in the park, from public property under the control of the Park Commissioners, from the sale of articles from said parks, and moneys coming into said fund by donation or bequest; to the library fund all moneys accruing to said fund by donation or bequest: to the general fund, the moneys paid for fines or fees, for licenses, and all other moneys not directed to be paid into any other specific fund.

SEC. 4. Out of the school fund shall be paid all sums necessary for the purchase, rent, and improvement of school sites; for the rent, furnishing, construction, alteration, and repair of school buildings; for the discharge of incumbrances on school property, for the salaries and wages of teachers, officers, and employees connected with or employed in the school department; for supplying the schools with lights, fuel, water, apparatus, and necessary school appliances, and for such other expenses of the school department as are necessary for the maintenance and proper conduct of the schools of the city.

SEC. 5. Out of the police fund shall be paid the salaries of the regular police force and all sums necessary for providing police stations, implements, and appliances, and such amount of money for the contingent expenses of the police department as the Board of Commissioners deem necessary.

SEC. 6. Out of the street light fund shall be paid all sums authorized to be paid for lighting the streets and such public buildings, offices, and institutions as are not specially provided to be maintained out of some other specific fund.

SEC. 7. Out of the street fund shall be paid all sums authorized to be paid for repairing and improving streets, which shall have been accepted so as to become a charge upon said city; for cleaning streets, crossings, and sewers; for street sprinkling; for all street work in front of or assessable upon property owned by said city or any department thereof, or by the Government of the United States; for all repairs upon the public streets deemed of urgent necessity; for all work authorized by the Mayor and Common Council which may be necessary for public health, or which cannot be assessed upon private property; and for all other expenditures on the streets and highways deemed necessary by the Mayor and Common Council and authorized by any provision of this charter.

SEC. 8. Out of the sewer fund shall be paid all sums authorized to be paid for the construction and repair of such sewers or system of drainage as may be ordered by the Mayor and Common Council, and which is not chargeable upon private property.

SEC. 9. Out of the fire department fund shall be paid the salaries and wages of all officers, members, and employees of the fire department, the salaries and wages of the officers, members, and employees of the fire alarm and police telegraph service, and the salary of the secretary of the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners; all sums authorized to be paid for the purchase of all apparatus, appliances, and things of every nature and description necessary for the extinguishment of fires, and for the complete equipment, maintenance, and operation of the department.

SEC. 10. Out of the health department fund shall be paid the salaries of all officers and employees of the Board of Health, and any and all other salaries and expenses incurred in the administration of said health department, and not expressly provided to be paid out of some other fund.

SEC. 11. Out of the park improvement fund shall be paid all sums authorized to be paid for such materials, supplies, tools, machinery, appliances, labor, and service, as well as for seeds, plants, vines, shrubs, trees, animals, and museums, which the Park Commissioners may procure for preserving, improving, and beautifying the public grounds under the control of said commissioners.

SEC. 12. Out of the library fund shall be paid the salaries and wages of officers and employees of the public library and reading-rooms, the purchase of books, journals, and periodicals, and such supplies as may be used in the maintenance of said library and reading-rooms.

SEC. 13. Out of the general fund shall be paid all claims not provided to be paid out of any other specific fund.

SEC. 14. If the Mayor and Common Council appropriate money for any other purpose besides those enumerated in this chapter, it shall at once, when paid into the treasury, be apportioned by the Treasurer and kept in a separate specific fund, which shall receive an appropriate designation, and out of said fund shall be paid only such demands as are properly chargeable thereto within the purposes of such appropriation.

SEC. 15. Any moneys remaining at the end of any fiscal year in any fund shall be carried forward to the same fund for the ensuing fiscal year.

SEC. 16. Any demand against the treasury, or against any fund thereof, remaining unpaid at the end of the fiscal year for lack of money in the treasury applicable to its payment, may be paid out of any money which may subsequently come into the proper fund from delinquent taxes, or other uncollected income or revenue for such year. Such demands shall be paid out of such delinquent revenue, when collected, in the order of their registration.

He shall, from time to time, give the Common Council information, in writing, relative to the state of the city, and shall recommend such measures as he may deem beneficial.

He shall have the books and records of all public departments pertaining to the finances of the city experty by a competent person at least once in every year. It shall be the duty of every officer and person in the employ or service of the city, when it comes to his knowledge that any contract or agreement with the city or with any officer or department thereof, or relating to the business of any office, has been or is about to be violated by the other contracting party, forthwith to report to the Mayor all facts and information within his possession concerning such matter, and a willful failure so to do shall be cause for removal of such officer or employé as in the case of malfeasance in office.

SEC. 5. The Mayor may, in writing, call special meetings of the Common Council. The call shall state the object of the meeting, and no business other than that stated therein shall be transacted.

PUBLIC WORKS.

Chapter I—Improvement of Streets.

SECTION 1. An Act of the Legislature of the State of California entitled "An Act to provide for work upon streets, lanes, alleys, courts, places, and sidewalks, and for the construction of sewers within municipalities," approved March 18, 1885, as since amended, and as hereafter shall be amended, is hereby adopted as a part of this charter, and shall have the same force and effect as if incorporated at length herein, except where the provisions of said Act conflict or are inconsistent with the provisions of this charter.

SEC. 2. When the estimated expense of any improvement being made under said Act exceeds two dollars per front foot along each line of the street proposed to be improved, the Superintendent of Streets, at the time of posting along the street the notices of the passage of the resolution of intention, shall cause to be deposited on the front doorstep of each dwelling fronting on the proposed improvement a copy of Part I of said Act.

SEC. 3. If the improvement is being made under the provisions of Section 13 of said Act, with the notice requiring the repair or reconstruction to be made, the Superintendent of Streets shall, in like manner, deposit a copy of Sections 13, 14, 15, 16, and 17 of said Act, and also a copy of any ordinance passed pursuant to Section 15 of said Act.

SEC. 4. If bonds are to be issued pursuant to an Act of the Legislature entitled "An Act to provide a system of street improvement bonds to represent certain assessments for the cost of street work and improvement within municipalities, and also for the payment of such bonds," approved February 27, 1893, and any assessment less in amount than $50 remains unpaid for thirty days from the date of the warrant, or for five days after final decision on appeal, as provided in Section 11 of said Act, the Mayor and Common Council may, by resolution, order such assessment paid from the street contingent fund, and the Superintendent of Streets shall thereupon release said assessment on the books of his office as upon payment in other cases.

SEC. 5. At the beginning of each month the Superintendent of Streets shall file with the City Clerk a statement, verified by his oath, containing such items of expense of improvements made during the preceding month which could have been charged under the provisions of said Act as incidental expenses; said statement shall also show what amounts have been collected and what disposition has been made thereof. The City Clerk shall lay such statement before the Mayor, who shall carefully examine the same, and if he finds that the provisions of said Act in relation to the collection of incidental expenses have been observed, shall indorse his approval on said statement, and deposit it with the Clerk. The Mayor and Common Council shall not allow any claim for a service which could have been charged as incidental expenses under the provisions of said Act, except when the work is abandoned before letting a contract, or unless such service was ordered by the Mayor and Common Council before it was performed.

SEC. 6. All bids for public work shall be made upon printed forms, to be prepared by the Superintendent of Streets, and furnished gratuitously upon application, with a form for the affidavit hereinafter provided for, printed thereon. No person, corporation, or firm shall be allowed to make or file, or be interested in, more than one bid for the same work. If, on the opening of said bids, more than one bid appear in which the same person, corporation, or firm is interested, all such bids shall be rejected.

Said bond shall be approved by the Mayor. If such surety be a non-resident of the County of Santa Clara, his sufficiency shall be certified by the Superior Judge of the county where he justifies, whose certificate shall be indorsed on said bond before the same is presented to the Mayor for approval.

Any such agreement shall be deemed a fraud upon all persons liable to be assessed for such work, other than the property owners who were parties to the agreement, and shall operate to void, as to such persons so defrauded, any assessment made or the work done under said contract.

SEC. 9. If any check or bond required to accompany a bid for work authorized by this article shall be forfeited for failure, neglect, or refusal of the bidder to enter into the contract to do said work, the Mayor and Common Council shall not have power to relieve from or remit such forfeiture, unless it be shown by the contractor that errors have been made in the proceedings sufficient to vitiate the contract.

QUESTION OF PRIVILEGE.

Senator Morehouse arose to a question of privilege in regard to an article published in the San Francisco Examiner of Saturday, February 27, 1897, charging members of the Senate and Assembly with receiving bribes, and at the close of his remarks offered and moved the adoption of the following resolution:

WHEREAS, An article appeared in the San Francisco Daily Examiner, a newspaper printed and published in the City and County of San Francisco, State of California, and circulated over the State of California, and over various States of the United States, and elsewhere, which said article so printed and published and circulated is in the words following, to wit:

"Bribery in Aid of Thievery—Thousands of Dollars Corruptly Paid Members of the Legislature to Influence their Vote—Sensational Revelations at Sacramento as to a Bill Bearing on the Hale & Norcross Litigation—To Oust Judge Hebbard from the Case—Provides for a Radical Change in the Law as to Disqualification—Is now in the Hands of the Governor.

"SACRAMENTO, February 26.

"If, as Tennyson tells us, 'The jingling of the guinea helps the hurt that honor feels,' there is no immediate danger that any one here will cry out in great pain; for there has been a deal of jingling. Some good gentleman has been toiling diligently at the Capital as a dispenser of bribes, and various lawmakers of the State have been soiling their robes of office by contact with him. It is a tale to bring the blush to the cheek of every Californian.

"Plainly, coin has been used to crowd through the Legislature a bill capable of enabling Alvinza Hayward and his Hale & Norcross following to oust Judge Hebbard from the great case in which they have been adjudged guilty of gigantic frauds.

"At present the Hale & Norcross case is before the Supreme Court. Should that tribunal find some error in the rulings of the court below, the cause would be sent back for rehearing. Herein arises the eagerness of the defendants to be placed in a position where they shall not have, in such a contingency, to face the judge who knows them to the core.

"How to get the case out of Judge Hebbard's court is the problem. And as the statutes now read, here is the law in that regard:

"Section 170 of the Code of Civil Procedure: No justice, judge, or justice of the peace shall sit or act as such in any action or proceeding:

"1. To which he is a party, or in which he is interested;

"2. When he is related to either party by consanguinity or affinity within the third degree, computed according to the rules of law;

"3. When he has been attorney or counsel for either party in the action or proceeding.

"But the provisions of this section shall not apply to the arrangement of the calendar or the regulation of the order of business, nor to the power of transferring the action or proceeding to some other court."

"It would not be easy to get rid of Judge Hebbard under that section of the Code.

"But laws are mutable things, after all, and sometimes Code sections that stand obstinately in the paths of determined litigants are pruned into the desired shape. Occasionally this just happens; frequently some earnest soul arises and makes it happen.

"Precisely what was the genesis of Assembly Bill No. 273 does not appear. It may be that the measure was drafted without thought of any particular case; and it may be that it was designed to advantage the general public, so far as the general public has the misfortune to be mixed in lawsuits. Mr. Caminetti has to-day promised to submit a signed statement dealing with this matter. Until Mr. Caminetti has submitted his statement, this phase of the case need not be pursued.

"But the bill referred to was introduced by Mr. Caminetti, and it runs as follows:

"An Act to amend Section 170 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

"The people of the State of California, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

"SECTION 1. Section 170 of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

"Section 170. No justice, judge, or justice of the peace shall sit or act as such in any action or proceeding:

"1. To which he is a party or in which he is interested;

"2 When he is related to either party, or to an attorney, counsel or agent of either party, by consanguinity or affinity, within the third degree, computed according to the rules of law.

"3. When he has been attorney or counsel for either party in the action or proceeding:

"4. When it appears from the affidavit of either party that he has reason to believe, and does believe, that he cannot have a fair and impartial trial before the justice or judge about to try the case, by reason of the prejudice or bias of such justice or judge, in either of which cases said justice or judge shall forthwith secure the services of some other justice or judge of the same or an adjoining county, to preside at the trial of said action, provided, that in actions in the Superior Court of counties, or cities and counties, having more than one department, said actions shall be transferred to another department thereof, and tried therein in the same manner as though originally assigned to such department.

"But the provisions of this section shall not apply to the arrangement of the calendar, or to regulation of the order of business, nor the power of transferring the action or proceeding to some other court.

"Sec. 2. This Act shall take effect immediately."

"The fourth subdivision of the first section of the Act is new to the law. Nothing like it is found in the Codes of any of the American States. Under this new subdivision it would be possible for the defendants in the Hale & Norcross case to swear the cause out of the department of the Superior Court over which Judge Hubbard presides.

"Without a shadow of doubt members of the Assembly and members of the Senate were bribed to support the bill. The price paid for each vote bought in the lower house was $150. In the Senate a vote brought all the way from $350 to $500. Several thousand dollars changed hands. The bill passed both houses. It is in the hands of the Governor.

"In the Assembly Mr. Caminetti stood for the change; in the Senate Mr. Voorheis, of Amador, urged it. They were assisted in pointing out the merits of the bill by Mr. George Baker, the San Francisco attorney. Mr. Baker is the confidential friend and advisor of Mr. Alvinza Hayward's partner, Mr. Lane.

"The vote for the bill in the Assembly was unanimous. In the Senate there was some opposition. The history of the bill in the Senate is interesting. Last Tuesday afternoon the measure was called up for third reading and final passage. Senator Morehouse moved that the bill be refused a third reading. The roll was called, and the motion was lost by the following vote:

"AYES—Senators Aram, Brauhart, Chapman, Flint, Franck, Gillette, Gleaves, Holloway, Jones, La Rue, Luchsinger, Morehouse, Smith, Trout, and Withington—15.

"NOES—Senators Androus, Bert, Bulla, Denison, Dickinson, Linder, Mahoney, Seawell, Shine, Shippee, Stratton, Toner, Voorheis, and Wolfe—18.

"On the following day, when the bill was called up for final passage, two unimportant amendments were offered and immediately voted down. The roll was called, and the bill was passed by the following vote:

"AYES—Senators Androus, Bert, Bulla, Chapman, Doty, Dwyer, Feeney, Franck, Hall, Henderson, Langford, Linder, Mahoney, Morehouse, Pedlar, Prisk, Seawell, Shine, Stratton, Toner, Voorheis, and Wolfe—22.

"NOES—Senators Brauhart, Denison, Dickinson, Flint, Gillette, Holloway, Jones, La Rue, Luchsinger, Simpson, Smith, Trout, and Withington—13.

"Prisk, Pedlar, Langford, and Dwyer, who were absent when the roll was called on Tuesday, voted for the bill. Chapman, Franck, and Morehouse, who had voted against allowing the bill a third reading, cast their votes for the passage of the measure."

THIRD READING OF BILLS—(RESUMED).

At three o'clock and five minutes P. M., Hon. Thomas Flint, Jr., President pro tem. of the Senate, was called to the chair.

Assembly Bill No. 57—An Act to amend Section 792 of the Political Code, so as to prohibit a county officer or his deputy from being a notary public.

Senator Seawell asked unanimous consent to withdraw Assembly Bill No. 57, which was on third reading, and substitute therefor on file Assembly Bill No. 45—An Act requiring every corporation in this State to pay their employes, and each of them, at least once in each and every month, the wages earned by such employes; to define the duties of the Labor Commissioner and the District Attorneys of the several counties of this State in enforcing this Act; to limit the defenses which may be set up by such corporation to assignments of wages, set-off or counter claims, or the absence of such employe at the time of making payment; and in case of such absence the wages are payable upon demand; to prohibit assignments of wages for the purpose of evading the provisions of this Act, and agreements to accept wages at longer periods than as herein provided as a condition of employment; to fix a penalty for this violation of the provisions of this Act by such corporation, and to provide for the disposition of any fines recovered from corporations violating the same—which was on second reading.

Senator Dickinson objected to such substitution, on the ground that a bill on its second reading could not be substituted for a bill on its third reading.

RULING OF THE CHAIR.

The Chair ruled that under Rule XII of the joint rules, providing for a special file of Assembly bills after the 23d of January, 1897, there was but one special file of Assembly bills, and bills were to be considered in the order in which they were placed on said file, regardless of whether they were upon the second or third reading, and that a substitution of one bill for another upon the Assembly file was in order at any time, upon consent of the Senate.

Consent granted.

Assembly Bill No. 57 withdrawn, ordered stricken from the file, and Assembly Bill No. 45 substituted therefor on file.

SECOND READING OF BILL.

Assembly Bill No. 45—An Act requiring every corporation in this State to pay their employes, and each of them, at least once in each and every month, the wages earned by such employes; to define the duties of the Labor Commissioner and the District Attorneys of the several counties of the State in enforcing this Act; to limit the defenses which may be set up by such corporation to assignments of wages, set-off or counter claims, or the absence of such employe at the time of making payment; and in case of such absence the wages are payable upon demand; to prohibit assignments of wages for the purpose of evading the provisions of this Act, and agreements to accept wages at longer periods than as herein provided as a condition of employment; to fix a penalty for this violation of the provisions of this Act by such corporation, and to provide for the disposition of any fines recovered from corporations violating the same.

During the second reading of the bill, the following amendment was submitted by Senator Seawell:

Amend by striking out of Section 1, lines 9, 10, and 11, the words "provided, that any employer may, by special contract with such employe, make other arrangements for said payment."

Where the estimated cost of such work amounts to three hundred dollars, the Board of Supervisors must, by proper order, direct the County Surveyor to make definite surveys of the proposed work, and to prepare profiles and cross-sections thereof, and to submit the same, with the estimate of the amount or amounts of work to be done, and the cost thereof, and with specifications therefor. The board shall publicly open and read such bids as may be submitted, and must award the contract for the work to the lowest bidder unless it shall appear to the board that the bids are too high, in which case the board may reject all bids, and readvertise, as in the first instance. When such work is completed, the same shall be inspected by the Board of Supervisors and the County Surveyor, or by the County Surveyor and a committee of the board, appointed by the chairman to inspect and report upon the same; and where properly done and performed shall be accepted by them; and no payment shall be paid for such work until the same has been inspected and accepted, as aforesaid; provided, the board may, in their discretion, advance not to exceed thirty per cent of the amount of such contract after the work is at least one half completed.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR.

At four o'clock and thirty-two minutes P. M., the following messages from the Governor were received and read, the time of receipt being noted by request of Senator Boyce:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, }
SACRAMENTO, March 2, 1897. }

To the honorable Senate of California :

I herewith return Senate Bill No. 28, without my approval, and with my objections thereto.

This bill presents an attractive idea, and suggests possibilities as limitless as inhere in organized society. Had the question been presented to me in legal form, I hesitate to say what might have been my disposition of it. I need not now, however, discuss the question of its practicability or its policy, as, in its present form, it is plainly in conflict with the constitutional inhibition upon the Legislature passing local or special laws. No provision of the Constitution is given more emphatic utterance, none of its mandates so often repeated, as that local or special legislation shall not be enacted. The Constitution expressly permits the classification of counties for the purpose of fixing the compensation of officers, and of municipalities in proportion to population for the purposes of incorporation and organization. No other classification is permitted by the Constitution, unless it is a natural one which inheres in the subject-matter of the law, and constitutes it a class by its natural individuality. The Legislature may classify for the purposes of legislation where there is some intrinsic reason why the law should operate upon some and not upon others, but it cannot legislate constitutionally by making separate provision, or imposing restrictions in the exercise of a common right upon a class of persons arbitrarily selected from the general body of those who stand in precisely the same relation to the subject of the law. It is necessary to the validity of this natural and intrinsic classification that there be something more than a mere designation by such characteristics as will seem to classify. The reason of the classification and the necessity for exclusive legislation must be apparent. There must be a substantial distinction between the persons or things embraced within the classification and those without it. The marks of distinction must be such as in the nature of things will account for the limitation of the enactment. A special law is one referring to a select class, as well as to a particular object. A general law must be as broad as its subject. Does the bill in question meet these requirements? It very plainly does not.

What is its object? To promote moral education, to eradicate crime, to reform society by the correction of the evils to which it is subject. To accomplish this purpose it provides that whenever in any county, or city and county, the number of children attending the public schools amounts to twenty-five thousand, and whenever the number of inmates of its prisons, poor-houses, and reformatories amounts to one thousand, three of the county officers shall elect a competent person as "specialist in sociological education." It will be noted that no attempt is made to follow the classification of the counties or of municipalities established by the Legislature under the express permission of the Constitution. An arbitrary and unusual classification is attempted, and it remains to determine if it is such a natural and intrinsic one as is sanctioned by law. The object of the law, as heretofore stated, is the promotion of a truer education, the correction of crime, and the prevention of dependent poverty. It provides for the employment of a person who shall study sociological phenomena, and collect statistics which will aid in the eradication of social evils. These are all questions of interest to the whole State, and inhere in all organized society. These are all conditions which are not peculiar to the classification attempted in this bill, but extend beyond it to the remotest settlements. It is readily apparent that in congested centers of population social problems are more complex and humanity more various. For the purposes of the elevated and useful investigation and study outlined, large cities, with their resulting large child-life and the congregation in numbers of the poor, the criminal, and the abnormal, present the most fruitful and attractive fields. But there the distinction ends—it is a distinction in degree only. The need of a moral education is one common to all humanity; vice and crime and poverty exist in all parts of the State to a greater or less degree, and their correction or eradication is a question in which all are interested. The classification attempted in this bill does not seem to be a natural or intrinsic one, nor to include within its application all those interested in or affected by its subject-matter. Its classification is purely arbitrary. The social phenomena in the counties made the subject of legislation in this bill are common to all counties, and vary only in extent. The attempted classification is not such a one as marks a clear and natural distinction between the counties within its terms and those not included. It would have been equally legitimate to have extended the Act to counties, or cities and counties, where the school attendance amounted to twenty thousand, or have limited it to such as have an attendance of thirty thousand or more.* Social phenomena can be observed, and the study of sociology can be conducted to advantage, and with profit, in isolated communities, as well as in the great cities. That such studies can be prosecuted to greater advantage in the latter than in the former, is readily admitted, but in providing for official investigation of this aspect of society, where shall we draw the line? Not, surely, where this bill attempts to draw it. Admitting the purpose of the bill to be practicable, and that it will be properly executed, its ultimate result would be the reformation of society and the upbuilding of the entire State, by the elevation of its citizenship. These are not conditions peculiarly beneficial to one section of the State, but should be extended to all. If this bill outlines a practicable plan, it should be as general in its application as the purpose it seeks to accomplish. The bill itself bears upon its face this testimony. It provides for the preparation of reports by the specialist, and their distribution throughout the State. If the purpose for which this officer is to be appointed is not general, why provide for the general diffusion of the result of his labors? This Act also requires all the officers of any jail, asylum, hospital, or similar institution within this State to furnish this officer, employed by a county, with any data in their possession necessary or valuable to him in carrying out the purposes for which he was appointed. The conclusion is unavoidable that this bill provides for the appointment of an officer in certain counties or cities and counties for a purpose or object common to all counties; and for the purpose of providing for an officer in certain counties or cities and counties, the result of whose labors is to be used for the benefit of the entire State in the furtherance of a common purpose, it attempts a classification which is not provided for in the Constitution, and is not such a natural or intrinsic one as is permitted by law. It will be thus seen that this bill attempts legislation in one or more counties, with regard to an object, or to meet conditions peculiar to all counties, and no plainer illustration of a local or special Act could be given. When to this you add that provision is made for the appointment of an officer in a local political subdivision, to perform services for the general use of the entire State, the case becomes plainer. That it attempts a classification which is purely arbitrary does not change its character. Every special law classifies, unless applied to named individuals, and hence by this logic no limitation is imposed upon the power of the Legislature by the numerous constitutional provisions against special and local laws. There are other legal objections to the law which it is only necessary to mention.

This specialist is to be appointed whenever the number of inmates in certain penal reformatory or charitable institutions amount to one thousand. How is the fact to be determined? If by some arbitrary investigation or determination the inmates of such institutions are found to amount to that number, and the officer is appointed, what would follow if the number should afterwards fall below the required amount? It is dangerous to enact legislation which contains provisions which leave it indeterminate when it shall take effect, and doubtful how long and upon what condition it shall continue to apply.

Section 5 of Article XI of the Constitution provides that the Legislature shall provide by general and uniform laws for the election or appointment of certain county officers, and such other county officers as the public convenience may require. This bill provides for the appointment of a county officer which we will presume the public convenience requires, but in making such provision ignores the established and legal classification in proportion to population, authorized by the Constitution, and provides a novel and arbitrary one, not sanctioned by law. It is further defective in that it delegates to three county officers the authority conferred upon the Legislature by the Constitution. They are to determine when the contingency exists, and are then to appoint the officer.

Another objection is the indefinite tenure of office provided for the specialist. His appointment is to continue for the same period of time that the teachers in the primary and grammar grades are now appointed. This is not sufficiently definite, and might, under our system of employing such teachers, be incapable of determination. In the several counties of this State teachers in the grades specified are employed for varying terms, and upon the happening of the contingencies provided for in this bill and the resulting election of the specialist, what would be the term of his appointment? Some of the teachers in the county might be employed for a term of eight months, some for ten, and others for a full year. As the specialist is to be appointed for the same term as the teachers (presumably all the teachers), the question would arise as to what term he was employed for, and it would be incapable of an exact answer.

The purpose sought to have been accomplished by this bill is a most worthy one. Statistics of the character therein provided for would be of the highest advantage to all students of social problems, and their proper utilization by those intrusted with the care and training of the young, the reformation of the criminal, and the support of the poor would give a practical direction to the movement for prison reform, and the placing of the poor upon a basis of self-support, and generally for better civil government. It would lead to a better understanding of the causes which underlie the evils which afflict society and burden the State, would enlighten the law-making power, and enable it to correct social ills by removing the causes which produce them. In time, provision should be made for a State officer charged with duties similar to the specialist provided for in this bill, or for the employment in the more populous counties, under a proper classification, of similar officers. The objections to the legality of this bill heretofore pointed out prevent me, however, from considering its undoubted merits, and in the form presented I must disapprove of it.

JAMES H. BUDD, Governor.

MESSAGES FROM THE ASSEMBLY.

On motion of Senator Langford, the following messages from the Assembly were taken up and read:

ASSEMBLY CHAMBER, SACRAMENTO, March 2, 1897.

MR. PRESIDENT: I am directed to inform your honorable body that the Assembly, on the 2d day of March, adopted Assembly Joint Resolution No. 31, relative to the appointment of a commission to consider the funding of the debts of government-aided railroads.

S. J. DUCKWORTH, Chief Clerk.
By W. G. HAWKETT, Assistant.

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 31 read, as follows:

ASSEMBLY JOINT RESOLUTION No. 31.

WHEREAS, In the four last sessions of Congress, the so-called Pacific Railroad refunding bills have been defeated by your honorable body, in spite of the powerful and unceasing pressure of the great railroad companies and a large portion of the press; and

WHEREAS, A new plan has lately been formulated to substitute a so-called Commission Bill for the Funding Bill, under the plea that this would be acceptable to the people of the Pacific Coast; and

WHEREAS, This is an error, for the people of the Pacific Coast consider such a commission as most dangerous to their interests and welfare, and to the interests and welfare of the people of the whole United States; and

WHEREAS, The pursuit and collection of the hundreds of millions of dollars involved should not be left to a commission of a few persons, who are entirely occupied with most important federal duties, involving the welfare of this great nation, and who have not the time for such a necessarily protracted investigation, even if Congress granted them the powers and constituted the commission a special court of law; and

WHEREAS, This would be contrary to the provisions of the Constitution of the United States, which divides the powers of the government into the executive, the legislative, and the judiciary departments; and

WHEREAS, The collection of a debt comes clearly under the judiciary department, which has all the machinery for determining equities, searching for and seizing abstracted funds, and has the time needed for a thorough and extended investigation; and

WHEREAS, No reasons can be adduced why Congress should set aside the wise provisions of the Constitution, made for the benefit of all the citizens of the nation, rich and poor alike, at the solicitation of wealthy corporations; therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate concurring. That for these reasons, and many others which will undoubtedly develop in a judicial examination, we, the Legislature of the State of California, respectfully pray that no action be taken by the United States Congress in regard to the debt owing by the Pacific railroads, but that the laws of the land be allowed to take their natural course.

Referred to the Committee on Federal Relations and Immigration.

MR. PRESIDENT: I am directed to inform your honorable body that the Assembly on the 3d day of March adopted Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 9.

S. J. DUCKWORTH, Chief Clerk.
By W. G. HAWKETT, Assistant.

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 9 read, as follows:

ASSEMBLY CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. 9.

Resolution welcoming to the State of California the Societies of Christian Endeavor of the World, upon the occasion of their sixteenth annual international convention, to be held in the City of San Francisco, July 7 to 12, 1897.

WHEREAS, The sixteenth international Christian Endeavor convention is to be held in San Francisco, in this State, July seventh to twelfth of this year; and

WHEREAS, The Society of Christian Endeavor is an organization embracing over forty-five thousand local societies, with an aggregate membership of over two and one half millions of persons, located in the different countries of the world, but principally in the United States of America; and

WHEREAS, A large number of our citizens in public and private life have for a long time past been devoting much time, labor, and money to the end that the convention of 1897 might be secured to our State, and will continue to labor and expend their money and devote their time in order to assure to our visitors a cordial and hospitable welcome; and

WHEREAS, This society is an inter-denominational organization, which has for its object the development of the young in good morals, high character, and to fit them for laudable achievement; and

WHEREAS, It has come to our notice that at the conventions held in sister States within the past few years, the attendance has reached as high as fifty thousand persons; and

WHEREAS, The railway associations of the United States have agreed upon rates for transportation to and from the State on account of this convention of 1897, lower than were ever granted at any previous time, upon any account whatever, which rates of transportation are available to everybody, whether members of the societies or not, and such rates being upon terms that will allow reasonable time for all visitors on that occasion to not only attend the convention, but also permit them to visit the innumerable points of interest in the State; and

WHEREAS, It is confidently believed by those who have charge of the affairs of the societies and sessions of the convention that many thousands will visit our State by reason of holding the convention of 1897 in California; and

WHEREAS, It is the sense of the Legislature of the State of California that it is but meet and proper that the people of California should welcome to our beloved State the delegates to the convention of 1897, and their accompanying friends, and others drawn here upon this auspicious occasion, from which we must inevitably derive much benefit; therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate concurring therein. That the Legislature of the State of California, at its thirty-second session, beginning on the 4th day of January, 1897, does hereby extend to the Societies of Christian Endeavor of the World, and their friends, a cordial welcome to our State upon this, the occasion of their sixteenth annual convention, better known throughout the world as "California 1897 Christian Endeavor Convention," and we assure them and their visiting companions that they will find in our people a deep and earnest interest in that moral culture which is elevating and helpful to humanity, and a disposition to aid and encourage those who have already devoted much time and labor to this cause.

While those who will come to California during July next are within our State, we hope they will not fail to visit the many points of interest for which the State is famous, and see for themselves what a goodly heritage is ours; and we especially call their attention to Anno Domini 1601, when the first Christian Endeavor work on the western coast was initiated, where, "twenty years before the Pilgrims landed on Plymouth Rock, there was reflected a rude cross in the waters of the Bay of Monterey," which cross was erected by the Spanish padres. We also invite their attention to the early missions at Santa Barbara, Santa Clara, San Luis Obispo, and elsewhere, and to the more modern churches of every denomination in the cities, villages, and hamlets of the State. The material progress of our State from its earliest control by Americans, we think, is well illustrated by the respective State Capitol buildings—the first erected at Monterey in 1849; the next at San José, 1849-51; the next at Vallejo, 1852-53; the next at Benicia, 1853-54; the next at Sacramento, 1854; the next at Sacramento, 1855-1869; then our present magnificent State building.

In addition to this evidence of our prosperity, we are proud of the educational development of the State, as shown by our great university at Berkeley, adjacent to Oakland and San Francisco, and of the numerous other educational institutions, at the head of which stands the Leland Stanford, Jr., University at Palo Alto, near San José; the State Normal Schools, at Los Angeles in the south, San José in the center, and Chico in the north; while on Mount Hamilton, near San José, will be found the great Lick Observatory with its complete astronomical equipment; and thus throughout our State—from "Siskiyou to San Diego, and from the Sierras to the sea"—will be found much to attract the eye and satisfy the fancy of those who love the wonderful and beautiful in nature.

In the great Sierra Nevada range will be found the richest gold mines of the world, while in the valleys and plains are located the agricultural, horticultural, and viticultural development of the State, which are unsurpassed anywhere on the face of the globe.

For remarkable topographical features, there will be found Mounts Lowe and Wilson, near Los Angeles; farther north the world-famed Yosemite Valley and Mount Whitney, while to the north is Mount Shasta, clad in perpetual snow. All of these are easy of access by rail, while, by our fourteen hundred miles of tidewater shoreline, the commerce of the world could be accommodated in a score of places from Del Norte in the northwest to San Diego in the southwest, with Eureka, San Francisco, Oakland, Monterey, Santa Cruz, San Luis Obispo, Santa Barbara, and Los Angeles between. By the inland waters of the State may be reached a hundred cities and towns of greater or less importance, notable among which are Stockton, Sacramento, Marysville, and Red Bluff, and by the same inland waters and by rail may be reached the great national navy yard at Mare Island, opposite Vallejo.

In the eastern central portion of the State will be found the location of Sutter's mill, where James W. Marshall discovered gold, from which discovery came the impelling forces which have so materially aided in the development of what is now this great State of California.

With all these and many other attractions for the gratification of the senses, in addition to the benefits to be derived from associations at the convention, it is the belief of the Legislature of the State of California that much good will come to those who will visit us during the convention days, and we feel assured that much benefit will be derived by our own people from the visit of those who will come to us in connection with this memorable occasion.

Therefore, again we say to our expected guests, whether their stay with us be temporary or permanent, "Welcome, thrice welcome, to California."

Answer: "I have not the remotest idea."

Question: "What did you do with it?"

Answer: "I destroyed it or threw it away."

Question: "How did you destroy that, Mr. Lawrence?"

Answer: "I decline to answer."

Question: "The contents of the writing, did it or did it not have relation to the subject-matter of the article printed in the San Francisco Daily Examiner last Saturday, headed 'Bribery in Aid of Thievery'?"

Which question the witness declined to answer. Thereupon Senator Morehouse asked the witness what was the contents of the writing which he had destroyed or thrown away, and the witness declined to answer the question or to give any information of the contents of the paper or document which he had destroyed or thrown away, or the source from which he derived it. And your committee reports that as the San Francisco Daily Examiner has made the charges set forth in the article hereinbefore referred to, and was supposed to have, and is presumed to have the information in its possession upon which the article is based, that it cannot proceed further with the examination of said witness until the further action of this Senate in their behalf. And upon the said examination of witnesses so held, as aforesaid, on the 5th day of March, 1897, said witness Al. Murphy was placed upon the witness stand, and, after being duly sworn, he testified that he was connected with the San Francisco Daily Examiner, and a correspondent for said paper. Amongst other things, the following proceedings were had:

Question by Senator Morehouse: "Do you know of your own knowledge of any communication from the City of Sacramento to any person connected with the Examiner, either on last Saturday or two weeks or ten days prior to that time?"

Witness: "Of any person?"

Senator Seawell: "Yes."

Witness: "Would that include myself?"

Question: "If you sent any communication to the Examiner."

Answer: "Of any communication that I might have seen? I do not think I can answer that question, unless Mr. Hearst consents to my doing so."

Question: "Did you see any communication written by any person connected with the Examiner which you know of your own knowledge to have been forwarded to that paper concerning the subject-matter in question?"

Answer: "I shall have to decline to answer that question for the same reason given. I do not desire to be in contempt of the committee, but I shall have to decline to answer the question under these circumstances."

Senator Seawell: "I understand you refuse to answer unless released by the manager?"

Answer: "That is it, Senator."

Mr. Chairman: "The ruling is made upon the question submitted."

Witness: "I refuse to answer that."

Mr. Chairman: "That is not the question."

Senator Morehouse: "The only purpose of the question is to find out who furnished the information; that is all."

Mr. McNerny: "We have stated our position in the matter and will adhere to it."

Senator Morehouse: "I will ask you, Mr. Murphy, if you know who was the author of the article headed 'Bribery in Aid of Thievery,' published in the San Francisco Examiner?"

Answer: "I do not know absolutely. I can guess, but I do not know absolutely. I can tell more or less by the style of the article. I think I know, but I could not say positively."

And your committee reports that it will be thus seen that your committee cannot proceed further with the examination of said witness, for the reason that he, the said witness, the same as the said A. M. Lawrence, refuses to answer questions pertinent to the issue, or to furnish to your committee any information claimed to be in the possession of the San Francisco Examiner.

And on the said 5th day of March, 1897, at the time and place aforesaid, your committee had before it as a witness, L. L. Levings, also a reporter, and correspondent of the San Francisco Daily Examiner, and after he was duly sworn and testified as to his relations to the San Francisco Daily Examiner, the following occurred during the course of said examination:

Question by Senator Morehouse: "Do you know of your own knowledge of any telegram sent by any member of the Senate, or received by any member of the Senate, to influence his vote for or against or to withhold his vote on Assembly Bill No. 273?"

Answer: "I shall decline to answer, and wish to explain."

Mr. Chairman: "State your reasons. I suggest that you answer the question."

Senator Morehouse: "Why do you decline to answer?"

Answer: "Because should it be within my knowledge of any telegram having passed between members of the Senate and persons outside, relative to this matter, and I should be required to answer as to my knowledge, I would be violating the confidence that would not only ruin me as a newspaper man, but would be giving away information that belongs to my employers, which my employers pay for, and which is their property, and not mine."

Mr. Chairman: It is the sense of the committee that the explanation is not sufficient. The question will be repeated to him.

And thereupon the reporter repeated the question aforesaid, and the witness said: "I ask permission to have time to answer, and would like to make further explanation, in order that the committee may not think I am acting arbitrarily." The question was thereupon repeated to the witness, and the witness answered: "I decline to answer"; and your committee hereby reports that it will be seen that the aforesaid witnesses, all of whom are connected with the San Francisco Daily Examiner, refused and declined to answer the questions propounded to them relative to the subject-matter contained in the said article so published in the San Francisco Daily Examiner, or to give this committee any information in their possession concerning or relating to the vote of the Senators on Assembly Bill No. 273, or relating to the charge of bribery made in the said article so published in the said San Francisco Daily Examiner on the morning of the 27th day of February, 1897.

Wherefore, your committee render the foregoing report, and request further instructions from the Senate. Respectfully submitted.

DICKINSON,
SEAWELL,
ARAM,
Committee.

RESOLUTION—(OUT OF ORDER).

Senator Morehouse offered the following resolution, and moved its adoption:

WHEREAS, There appeared in the San Francisco Daily Examiner of February 27, 1897, an article headed "Bribery in Aid of Thievery," wherein it was charged that certain Senators who voted in favor of Assembly Bill No. 273 had received bribes ranging in amounts from $350 to $500 to cast their votes for said Assembly Bill No. 273; and

WHEREAS, Thereafter, on the 1st day of March, 1897, this honorable Senate, upon resolution duly adopted, appointed Senators John H. Dickinson, Eugene Aram, and J. H. Seawell as a committee to investigate the charges so made as aforesaid in said article so published as aforesaid in said newspaper, with full power to issue subpoenas, swear and examine witnesses, and to make a complete, perfect, and full investigation of the alleged bribery set forth in said newspaper; and

WHEREAS, Said committee so appointed by this Senate undertook to discharge its said duty of investigating the said charge of bribery; and

WHEREAS, Subpoenas were duly and regularly issued, and duly and regularly served, upon A. M. Lawrence, managing and supervising editor of the San Francisco Daily Examiner, and upon L. L. Levings, the correspondent of the San Francisco Daily Examiner, and reputed author of said article, and upon Al. Murphy, also a correspondent of the said San Francisco Daily Examiner; and

WHEREAS, In pursuance of said subpoenas, so issued and served, the said witnesses appeared before the said committee of investigation of this Senate, in room number 16 of the Capitol building, at Sacramento, at the hour of half-past seven o'clock, on March 5, 1897, and each of the said witnesses, being severally duly sworn, and during the course of the examination, refused to answer questions pertinent to the said issue as to their knowledge touching the matter set forth in said article, and to papers which were admitted to have been in their possession, or to telegrams which they had seen and had knowledge of; and

WHEREAS, The truth of the said article is supposed to rest and be in the knowledge of these said witnesses; and

WHEREAS, They are supposed to have caused the said article to be published; and

WHEREAS, The said witnesses have refused to answer questions relating to and pertinent and material to the investigation before the said committee; and

WHEREAS, The said committee has reported to this Senate the refusal of said witnesses to testify or to answer questions material to the investigation; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Sergeant-at-Arms of the Senate be and he is hereby authorized and directed to bring all of said witnesses, upon subpoena to be issued by the said committee through its Chairman, before the bar of this Senate forthwith, and then and there to answer the questions propounded to them, and which they declined and refused to answer, and that upon the service of the said subpoena upon said witnesses, if they refuse or fail to attend at the time aforesaid at the bar of the Senate, that the Sergeant-at-Arms be and he is hereby authorized and empowered, upon warrant issued by the said committee of investigation through its Chairman, to arrest said witnesses and bring them before the bar of the Senate, that they may purge themselves of contempt in refusing to answer the said questions; and be it further

Resolved, That upon the appearance of said witnesses, if they so desire it, that they collectively may have counsel to represent them, but that said counsel shall not be permitted to occupy more than one half hour of time; and be it further

Resolved, That upon the said witnesses being brought before the bar of the Senate, that the President of the Senate shall ask them if they have any cause to show why they should not be punished for contempt, in refusing to answer the questions propounded to them by said committee, through its counsel.

The roll was called, and the resolution adopted by the following vote:

AYES—Senators Androus, Aram, Beard, Buila, Chapman, Dickinson, Flint, Franck, Gillette, Gleaves, Jones, Linder, Luchsinger, Mahoney, Morehouse, Pedlar, Shine, Shippee, Simpson, Trout, Voorheis, and Wolfe—22.

NOES—Senators Bert, Braunhart, Doty, Feeney, Hall, La Rue, Prisk, Seawell, Smith, Stratton, and Withington—11.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE.

By Senator Withington:

I vote against the resolution, because the committee is not unanimous in the opinion that the testimony sought to be elicited is material to vindicate the integrity of the Senate and its members. In my opinion there is no such necessity, and I believe, after hearing the testimony, the witnesses have admitted, and the people of this State believe, that the charges made are absolutely without foundation, and that further investigation is unnecessary. A further reason is that the persons to be brought before the bar are but the instruments and servants of the owner of the paper, who is beyond the jurisdiction of the Senate.

MOTION.

Senator Flint moved that the Secretary be instructed to telegraph to the Hon. George C. Perkins, United States Senator at Washington, the resolution adopted Saturday, March 6, 1897, in regard to the appointment of Hon. Frank L. Coombs to the office of Minister to Japan.

SPECIAL ORDER.

At eleven o'clock A. M., that being the time heretofore set for the examination of witnesses A. M. Lawrence, Al Murphy, and L. L.

Levings, in regard to the charges of bribery made by the San Francisco Examiner against members of the Senate, the matter was taken up for consideration.

The proceedings were as follows:

Mr. A. M. Lawrence was called and examined.

Mr. President: "Mr. Secretary, propound to Mr. Lawrence the questions in the order as submitted in the report of the investigating committee. You are instructed, Mr. Lawrence, that you are now required to answer the questions as they are propounded."

Mr. Secretary: Question—"Did you have or see any writings, independent of the telegraphic dispatch, or dispatches, concerning the article in question?"

Mr. McEnerney: "The information sought to be elicited by that inquiry is confidential in character. Whether it is of that confidential nature which would secure the witness immunity under all circumstances or not, it is nevertheless a matter which, in the judgment of his counsel, is neither material nor relative to any issue which the Senate has power, jurisdiction, or authority to inquire into; and upon that ground he declines to answer."

Motion to re-read the question. Question read.

Mr. President: "The witness will answer the question."

Mr. McEnerney: "Did I understand, notwithstanding the resolution of yesterday, that he must personally state the grounds of this refusal; that he cannot decline through the medium of his counsel?"

Mr. President: "I think the witness should either answer or decline to answer, giving his reasons for declining."

Mr. Lawrence: "I decline to answer, Mr. President, and I would ask that my counsel be granted the privilege of stating the reasons."

Mr. McEnerney: "I understand under the rule, the resolution adopted yesterday, the counsel of the witnesses now before the bar of the Senate will be allowed half an hour to present this question. The question will be presented by Mr. Knight. The ground upon which Mr. Lawrence refuses to answer these questions is this: The matter sought to be elicited by the questions propounded is confidential in its nature, and was received in confidence; and whether it be of that confidential nature which secures him immunity or not, under all circumstances, it is, nevertheless, according to the point of view of his counsel, upon which he acts, a matter of investigation over which the Senate has no jurisdiction. It is purely hearsay, and the witness has already testified that he had no personal knowledge of the facts over which the Senate had jurisdiction of investigation, and now declines to answer upon the ground that the questions propounded and the information sought to be elicited is neither material nor pertinent to any issue, either under investigation or which the Senate or its committee has power to investigate."

Mr. President: "Propound the second question."

Mr. Secretary: "Did you have any writing concerning this article, other than the telegraphic dispatches?"

Senator Boyce: "I move that until this investigation that is now pending before this Senate closes, that all newspapers be excluded from this floor, and that the Sergeant-at-Arms of this Senate be instructed to carry out that resolution, and I put that resolution now before the Senate."

Ordered that the newspapers be excluded from the floor of the Senate during the time the witnesses were under examination, simply to avoid confusion on the floor.

The Secretary re-read the question.

Mr. Lawrence: "I decline to answer, on the grounds already stated by my counsel."

Mr. President: "Read the third question."

Mr. Secretary: "Other things in writing?"

Mr. Lawrence: "I decline to answer, on the grounds already stated."

Mr. Secretary: "I insist on an answer."

Mr. President: "That question is not necessary."

Mr. Secretary: "From whom?"

Mr. Lawrence: "I decline to answer, on the grounds already stated."

Mr. Secretary: "Where is that writing now?"

Mr. McEnerney: "I think that was answered—that question. It is answered. I have not the remotest idea."

The President: "In the investigation before the committee the witness gave at least partial answers to questions asked before the committee, and now declining to answer, makes the questions in the order asked here appear awkward and disconnected."

Mr. Lawrence: "I simply make the same answer that I did at first."

Mr. Secretary: "What did you do with it?"

Mr. Lawrence: "My answer is as I gave it to the committee."

Mr. Morehouse: "He answered that question before the committee; he said that he had destroyed it; thrown it away."

Mr. President: "I understand; but the witness now declines to give an answer, he is not compelled to give the same answer he did before the committee."

Mr. McEnerney: "He gives the same answer."

Mr. Secretary: "What did you do with it?"

Answer: "Destroyed it; threw it away."

Question: "How did you destroy that, Mr. Lawrence?"

Answer: "I decline to answer, on the grounds already stated."

Question: "The contents of the writing—did it or did it not have relation to the subject-matter of the article printed in the San Francisco Daily Examiner last Saturday, headed 'Bribery in Aid of Thievery?'"

Answer: "I decline to answer, on the same grounds."

Mr. President: "Proceed, Mr. Secretary."

Mr. Secretary, reading as follows: "Thereupon Senator Morehouse asked the witness what was the contents of the writing which he had destroyed, or thrown away, and the witness declined to answer the question, or to give any information of the contents of the paper or document which he had destroyed, or thrown away, or the source from which he derived it."

Mr. Morehouse: "I ask that the question be propounded by you, Mr. President, as to what the contents of the writing alluded to was, in the former question."

Answer: "I decline to answer, on the same grounds stated."

Mr. Al. Murphy was called and examined.

Question: "Mr. Murphy, do you know of your own knowledge of any communication from the City of Sacramento to any person connected with the Examiner, on last Saturday (which, as meant here, would be February 27th, I think), two weeks or ten days prior to that time? What is your answer?"

Answer: "I shall have to decline to answer that. I answered this before the committee; I give the same answer now."

Question: "Of any person?"

Answer: "Of any person, yes. Would that include me?"

Question: "Have you sent any communication to the Examiner?"

Answer: "Any communication that I have sent? I do not think I can answer that question, unless Mr. Hearst consents to my doing so."

Question: "Did you see any communication written by any person connected with the Examiner, which you know, of your own knowledge, to have been forwarded to that paper, concerning the subject-matter in question?"

Answer: "I shall have to decline to answer that question, on the grounds which counsel gave."

Question: "Your declination is based upon the grounds stated by Mr. McEnerney as to the first question propounded to Mr. Lawrence?"

Answer: "Yes, sir."

Question: "I will ask you, Mr. Murphy, if you know who was the author of the article headed 'Bribery in Aid of Thievery,' published in the San Francisco Examiner?"

Answer: "I do not, positively; I think that I do, but I cannot swear to it."

L. L. Levings was called and examined.

Mr. President: Question: "Do you know, of your own knowledge, of any telegram sent by any member of the Senate, or received by any member of the Senate, to influence his vote for or against, or to withhold his vote on Assembly Bill No. 273?"

Answer: "I shall decline to answer for the reasons given by my attorney, and for Mr. Lawrence's reasons for declining to answer the questions put to him."

Mr. President: "I will ask the three witnesses who have been examined to appear before the desk. Mr. Lawrence, have you any cause to show why you should not be punished for contempt in refusing to answer the questions that have been propounded to you here?"

Mr. Knight: "I suppose the question will be asked the three witnesses separately, and we will answer."

Question: "Mr. Murphy, have you any cause to show why you should not be punished for contempt in refusing to answer the questions which have been propounded to you here?"

Mr. Knight: "Same for Mr. Murphy."

Question: "Mr. Levings; same question?"

Mr. Knight: "Same for Mr. Levings."

Mr. Knight then addressed the Senate on behalf of the witnesses.

Senator Boyce moved that the hour of recess be extended until the close of Mr. Knight's address.

So ordered.

RECESS.

At the hour of twelve o'clock and fifty minutes p. m., Mr. Knight having concluded his address, the President declared the Senate at recess until two o'clock p. m.

COLLEGE OF PHYSICIANS AND SURGEONS OF SAN FRANCISCO, }
SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., March 1, 1897. }

To the Senators, care of the Lieutenant-Governor, Capitol, Sacramento, Cal.:

DEAR SENATORS: One hundred and eighty-five students of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of San Francisco petition the honorable Senate to recede, if necessary, from its amendment to Senate Bill No. 265, to abolish the office of Quarantine Officer, in order that the bill may pass which gives us clinical privileges in the City and County Hospital. We have no interest in the quarantine office, but we need the hospital clinics in obtaining our medical education.

Very respectfully,

HENRY EGBERT.

P. S.—I would respectfully point out:

First—The fact that the large number of earnest, reputable, and industrious students enrolled in this college within two months of the commencement of the first regular term shows conclusively the great demand there was for it, and the sincere wishes its establishment meets.

Second—The good taste of our distinguished faculty in naming our college in honor of the metropolis of the West, instead of ministering to personal or family vanity in the matter.

H. E., of the Senior Class.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION, UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, }

Resolved finally, That we hereby pledge ourselves to the people of California always to use our influence and best endeavors in such way as is incumbent on us as loyal graduates of the University, to the end that the high purposes of our Alma Mater may be more and more fully realized.

Also: Amend by striking out all of Section 3, and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

Sec. 3. Section thirty-six hundred and sixty-five of the Political Code is amended to read:

Section 3665. The State Board of Equalization must meet at the State Capitol on the third Monday in July, and continue in open session from day to day, Sundays excepted, until the first Monday in August. At such meetings the board must assess the franchise, roadway, roadbed, rails, and rolling stock of all railroads operated in more than one county, but franchises derived from the United States shall not be assessed. Assessments must be made to the corporation, person, or association of persons owning the same. If any portion of any railroad less than the whole is operated by some corporation or association of individuals other than the owner of such railroad, under lease or other contract, and such portion so operated runs in more than one county, the value of such part or portion of such railroad shall be assessed separate and apart from the balance of said railroad, and the board shall assess the roadway, roadbed, and rails of such portion of such railroad, together with the rolling stock used thereon by the corporation or association of individuals operating the same. The depots, stations, shops, and buildings erected upon the space covered by the right of way, and all other property owned by such person, corporation, or association of persons, are assessed by the Assessor of the county wherein they are situate. Within twenty days after the first Monday of August, the board must apportion the total assessment of the franchise, roadway, roadbed, rails, and rolling stock of each railway to the counties, or cities and counties, in which such railway is located, in proportion to the number of miles of railway laid in such counties, and cities and counties. The board must also, within said time, transmit, by mail, to the County Auditor of each county, or city and county, to which such apportionment shall have been made, a statement showing the length of the main track of such railway within the county, or city and county, with a description of the said track within the county, or city and county, including the right of way, by metes and bounds, or other description sufficient for identification, the assessed value per mile of the same, as fixed by a pro rata distribution per mile of the assessed value of the whole franchise, roadway, roadbed, rails, and rolling stock of such railway within the State, and the amount apportioned to the county, or city and county. The Auditor must enter the statement on the assessment roll or book of the county, or city and county, and where the county is divided into assessorial townships or districts, then on the roll or book of any township or district he may select, and enter the amount of the assessment apportioned to the county, or city and county, in the column of the assessment book or roll as aforesaid which shows the total value of all property for taxation, either of the county, city and county, or such township or district. On the third Monday in September, the Board of Supervisors must make, and cause to be entered in the proper record book, an order stating and declaring the length of main track of the railway assessed by the State Board of Equalization within the county, the assessed value per mile of such railway, the number of miles of track, and the assessed value of such railway lying in each city, town, township, school and road district, or lesser taxation district in the county, or city and county, through which such railway runs, as fixed by the State Board of Equalization, which shall constitute the assessment value of said property for taxable purposes in such city, town, township, school, road, or other district; and the clerk of the Board of Supervisors must transmit a copy of each order or equalization to the City Council, or trustees, or other legislative body of incorporated cities or towns, the trustees of each school district, and the authorized authorities of other taxation districts through which such railway runs. All such railway property shall be taxable upon said assessment at the same rates, by the same officers, and for the same purposes, as the property of individuals within such city, town, township, school, road, and lesser taxation districts, respectively. If the owner of a railway assessed by the State Board of Equalization is dissatisfied with the assessment made by the board, such owner may, at the meeting of the board, under the provisions of section three thousand six hundred and ninety-two of the Political Code, between the first Monday in August and the first Monday in September, apply to the board to have the same corrected in any particular, and the board may correct and increase or lower the assessment made by it so as to equalize the same with the assessment of other property in the State. If the board shall increase or lower any assessment previously made by it, it must make a statement to the County Auditor of the county affected by the change in the assessment of the change made, and the Auditor must note such change upon the assessment book or roll of the county, as directed by the board.

CONSIDERATION OF SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION OUT OF ORDER.

On motion of Senator Smith, Senate Joint Resolution No. 16 was taken up for consideration.

Senate Joint Resolution No. 16 was amended so as to read as follows:

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION No. 16.

Joint resolution relating to the citrus fruit industry.

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly concurring, That—

WHEREAS, On January 8, 1897, there was introduced into the Senate by Senator Langford a joint resolution (No. 2) relative to the fruit industry, which resolution duly passed both the Senate and Assembly, and was transmitted to our Senators and Representatives in Congress; and

WHEREAS, Said joint resolution contained various proposed duties on fruits raised in this State which Congress was asked to impose as a protection from foreign competition; and

WHEREAS, The said proposed duties have been construed to be the maximum rates desired by the California fruit-producers, whereas in reality they are the minimum duties suggested, and are entirely inadequate to protect California producers from foreign competition in several of the kinds of fruit and fruit products named; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the proposed duty of one cent per pound on Zante currants is inconsistent and unjust, and if adopted will be ruinous to raisin-growers in the State of California; that the foreign dried grapes, known to commerce as "Zante currants," come in direct competition with medium grades of California raisins of all descriptions, particularly with seedless varieties, and if admitted into this country on less than a three cents per pound duty will take the place of and supplant the domestic product; that the seedless descriptions of raisins comprise twenty per cent (20%) or more of all the raisins grown in this State; that the so-called Zante currant is a seedless grape, and should be so classified, and be made subject to the same duty as raisins and all dried grapes; and that under proper encouragement the raisin industry will largely and profitably increase, and that without such encouragement a very important industry will be destroyed. We therefore believe a duty of three (3) cents per pound on raisins, Zante currants, sultanas, and all other dried products of the grape should be adopted;

Resolved, That we believe a duty of not less than three and one half (3½) cents per pound should be fixed on prunes and dried plums, and that at a less rate this industry must languish, and the large sums of money invested in it become unprofitable, and thus lessen the opportunity for labor, when thousands of laborers are already without the opportunity of supporting themselves and their families;

Resolved, That our Senators be instructed and our Representatives in Congress be requested to urge that the fruit schedule in the new tariff law to be submitted to Congress, at its special session, shall contain a duty of not less than forty cents per cubic foot on oranges, lemons, and limes, laid at a uniform rate, regardless of the size of the package, and when in bulk should be not less than five dollars per thousand; and a duty of not less than fifty cents per cubic foot on shaddocks, grape-fruit, and pomelos, or twenty-five dollars per thousand when in bulk. On citric acid there should be a specific duty of fifteen cents per pound; seventy-five cents per pound on essential oils of oranges and lemons; five cents per pound on the finished product of candied oranges, and lemon peel and preserved citron; three cents per pound on citron of commerce, when in pickle or brine; and on concentrated lemon and lime juice, in proportion to the amount of citric acid it contains, at the rate of ten cents per pound.

Resolved, That these resolutions be printed and duly attested and a copy be forwarded to each member of the Ways and Means Committee of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative in Congress from the State of California.

Resolved, That this resolution be forwarded by telegraph to Hon. Geo. C. Perkins, United States Senator, at Washington, D. C., by the Secretary of the Senate.

The roll was called, and Senate Joint Resolution No. 16 adopted by the following vote:

AYES—Senators Androus, Beard, Boyce, Bulla, Denison, Dickinson, Flint, Franck, Gillette, Gileaves, Holloway, Jones, Langford, La Rue, Linder, Luchsinger, Mahoney, Morehouse, Shine, Simpson, Smith, Trout, and Voorheis—23.

NOES—Senator Doty—1.

The Secretary was directed to immediately prepare a message informing the Assembly of the foregoing action.

INTRODUCTION OF JOINT RESOLUTION—(OUT OF ORDER).

Senator La Rue introduced the following joint resolution, which was read, as follows:

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION No. 17.

WHEREAS, Reciprocity has long been the slogan of the Republican party; and

WHEREAS, There is now a movement on foot to revoke the tariff on imported wines in view of introducing reciprocity; and

WHEREAS, The Democratic doctrine is to tax the luxuries of life; and

WHEREAS, Wine is a luxury; therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, the Assembly concurring. That our Senators in Congress be instructed and our Representatives requested to use all honorable means to defeat any and all reciprocity measures looking to the removal of the tariff on imported wines; and be it further

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION No. 13.

"WHEREAS, There is now pending in the House of Representatives a bill entitled H. R. 260—"A bill to increase the salary of letter-carriers"—said bill having passed the Senate by an unanimous vote and reported favorably by the Committee on Post Offices and Post Roads of the House, the provisions of the bill adding a fourth grade of salary in first-class offices of twelve hundred dollars per annum, and in second-class offices one thousand dollars per annum, the present salary being six hundred dollars to eight hundred dollars and one thousand dollars in first class offices, and six hundred dollars and eight hundred and fifty dollars in second-class offices;

WHEREAS, Under present conditions, a carrier entering the service must serve at least eight years before he can obtain the highest grade of salary, the substitute list and subsequent grades of service requiring that time;

WHEREAS, The carrier service is self-supporting and a source of revenue to the Government, the duties of the carrier exacting, arduous, and responsible, requiring a high grade of physical and mental ability;

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly concurring, That our Senators and Representatives at Washington be and are hereby requested to urge the passage of said bill at the present session of Congress; that the Secretary of the Senate be and is hereby instructed to transmit a copy of these resolutions to our Representatives in Congress; also, to Hon. SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION No. 14.

A joint resolution relative to the classification of clerks in first and second class post offices.

WHEREAS, There is now pending in the House of Representatives a bill entitled H. R. 3273—"A bill for the classification of clerks in the first and second class post offices"; said bill has the approval of Postmaster-General Wilson, and would remove inequalities in the service which the postal authorities have long sought to remedy;

WHEREAS, At present salaries are not regulated by the labor performed nor the importance thereof. Clerks employed on the same kind of work are unequally paid, and in some instances those doing less work are paid more than others;

WHEREAS, It is said by the Committee on Post Offices and Post Roads of the House that in this bill the designations are defined, the duties are determined, the salaries fixed. It is certainly a reasonable proposition. Certainty, equality, fairness, and reality are substituted for uncertainty, inequality, unfairness, and artificiality, and in order to accomplish these desirable ends no additional appropriation will be required to put this measure into operation. The bill speaks for itself. No extravagant salaries are promised; only a fair and definite legal status is sought for individual clerks, and they are entitled to it; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly concurring. That our Senators and Representatives at Washington be and are hereby requested to urge the passage of said bill at the present session of Congress; that the Secretary of the Senate be and is hereby instructed to transmit a copy of these resolutions to our Representatives in Congress; also, to Hon. The following messages from the Governor were received and read:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, {
SACRAMENTO, March 15, 1897. }

To the honorable Senate of the State of California:

I hereby nominate P. J. Harney, of San Francisco, member of the Board of State Harbor Commissioners of San Francisco, vice Dan T. Cole, term expired, and request your consent to his appointment.

Also: I hereby nominate Rudolph Herold, Jr., of San Francisco, member of the Board of State Harbor Commissioners of San Francisco, vice Forrest S. Chaulbourne, term expiring March 13, 1898, and request your consent to his appointment.

JAMES H. BUDD, Governor.

Also:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, {
SACRAMENTO, March 15, 1897. }

To the honorable the Legislature of the State of California:

GENTLEMEN: On February 25th, by a vote of 29 to 1, Senate Bill No. 494 was passed by the Senate. On March 4th, upon its consideration by the Assembly, it was amended, and on March 8th, by a vote of 45 to 5 it passed that body as amended. On March 9th, by a vote of 39 to 0, the Senate refused to concur in the Assembly amendments, and on March 11th, by a vote of 47 to 7, the Assembly receded therefrom. The bill was returned from the House to the Senate and ordered to enrollment. On March 12th, what purported to be Senate Bill No. 494 was handed to the presiding officers and Chief Clerks of your two bodies as duly enrolled, and therefore was by them certified to me. The document certified to me, however, was not Senate Bill No. 494 as it passed, but contained provisions not contained in the true bill, and had it been approved as certified to me, the result would have been that the bill as passed would have been "killed."

This fact being brought to the attention of the proper officers, a second document purporting to be the said Senate bill was transmitted to this office, but not accepted, as it was found not to be the true bill, or the bill as passed. Later, Senate Bill No. 494 as it passed, was properly delivered to this office.

In view of these facts, and of certain communications which I transmit to you, I desire to recommend that your honorable bodies, under a suspension of the rules, pass a bill making it a felony, with the severest penalty, for any person to directly or indirectly write, telegraph, telephone, or in any manner approach one of the officials through whose hands a bill must pass, requesting that official to blockade that bill, or to use his position to kill the same, or to take any part for or against any measure before the Legislature. The Legislature itself, which passes all bills, is the proper body to which appeals should be made, and if appeals are permitted to be made to the clerks of said bodies, or persons who may control or be employed in the printing of bills, that a bill be blockaded or killed by them, methods may be introduced unknown to the laws for the defeating of measures after their passage.

It is now a felony to alter a bill; it should be a felony for any clerk or employé of your honorable bodies to lobby for a bill, or for any person to suggest that they in any manner take part in legislative proceedings, other than in the proper discharge of their duties.

Had the bill in question been delivered later in the session, or the blunder remained undiscovered, even the signature of the Governor would not have made law of the measure which your honorable bodies so almost unanimously passed. The change of a word or a phrase in the printing of a bill may, under our Constitution, blockade and kill it.

On March 3d, Mr. Henry French, of San José, telegraphed to the State Printer as follows:

"SAN JOSÉ, CAL., March 3, 1897.

"A. J. JOHNSTON (personal), State Printer, Sacramento:

"Blockade Assembly Bill 688 and Senate Bill 494 until my letter reaches you.

"HENRY FRENCH."

On the same day he sent an identical telegram to Mr. Brandon, Chief Clerk of the Senate. Neither of these gentlemen, however, complied with his request or blockaded the bill. Thereafter Mr. Johnston, Superintendent of State Printing, received from Mr. French the following letter:

"SAN JOSÉ, CAL., March 5, 1897.

"A. J. JOHNSTON, State Printer, Sacramento, Cal.:

"MY DEAR SIR: I want to write you a line in strict confidence, and ask your assistance in killing Budd's pet bill before the Legislature, Assembly Bill 688 and Senate Bill 494. I am just in receipt of a letter from Varcoe, the Enrolling Clerk of the Assembly, who assures me I can count on your cheerful coöperation. You will probably remember me as one of the war horses that left my business and spent a week in Sacramento, at my own expense, in the last Legislature, to kill No. 526, and did not return home until the flowers withered from the funeral ceremonies.

"You will perceive that Assembly Bill No. 688 and Senate Bill No. 494 are identical and the hope is, if the one is killed, the other will go through.

"I know you have sufficient confidence in my integrity and loyalty to the taxpayers of this State, to know that if I were not thoroughly confident of their vicious nature that I would be engaged in securing their passage instead of their defeat. I know you are in a position to kill these bills, and I am backed by influential friends of yours in asking you to do so. and if you ever want anything from Santa Clara County, kindly communicate with

"Yours respectfully,

(Signed:) "HENRY FRENCH.

"See Frank Brandon—I think he will do anything he can confidentially."

Mr. Frank Brandon, Chief Clerk of the Senate, received from Mr. French the following letter:

"To FRANK BRANDON, Chief Clerk of the Senate, State Capitol, Sacramento:

"MY DEAR FRIEND: I want to write you in strict confidence and invoke your assistance in killing Assembly Bill No. 688 and Senate Bill No. 494. I have just discovered a rotten scheme that lies behind these bills, and I am thoroughly confident that S. T. Black and the three principals of the three normal schools are working in hand with the Governor's approval. The details I will give you in full the first time we meet. But I know you have sufficient confidence in my integrity to know that these bills, while innocent on the surface, are vicious legislation, and the highest and best interests of the State normal schools demand their extermination.

"Now, I don't expect you to jeopardize anything by making an open fight, but I know you are in a position to kill them, if you want to.

"Count on me as your sincere friend always.

"Very respectfully,

(Signed:) "HENRY FRENCH.

"Confer with State Printer Johnston—can't trust Black."

The letter to Mr. Johnston contained the language: "I know you are in a position to kill these bills," and "See Frank Brandon. I think he will do anything he can confidentially," and the letter to Mr. Brandon, the words "Now, I don't expect you to jeopardize anything by making an open fight, but I know you are in a position to kill them, if you want to," and the fact appears from his letter to Mr. Johnston that he was in correspondence on the same subject with Mr. John Varcoe, the Enrolling Clerk of the Assembly.

The State Printer was in no manner to blame for the changes in Bill No. 494 that would have "killed" it, nor was Mr. Brandon. The fact remains, however, that the bill was twice so dealt with after it had properly passed, and that it contained matters therein inserted which would most effectually have killed it, had the error not been discovered.

The danger of the defeat of deserving measures during the closing days of the session would be so very easy by such methods, that every safeguard should be thrown around them. The heaviest penalties should be attached to any secret confidential request made of the officers handling them to interest themselves in any manner whatever in their defeat.

JAMES H. BUDD, Governor.

The messages from the Governor were referred to the Committee on Executive Communications and Nominations.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE—(OUT OF ORDER).

The following report of standing committee was received and read:

ON STATE PRISONS AND PRISON BUILDINGS.

SENATE CHAMBER, SACRAMENTO, March 17, 1897.

MR. PRESIDENT: Your Committee on State Prisons and Prison Buildings, having visited the State prisons situate respectively at San Quentin and at Folsom, respectfully report as follows:

Your committee visited the State prison at San Quentin on Monday, February 22d. Our inspection of the grounds and buildings was as thorough as time would permit, and we congratulate the officers of that institution for the care displayed in the performance of their duties.

Our next visit was to the State prison at Folsom, on Saturday, February 27th.

We have taken the last annual report of the State Board of Prison Directors, and, with information obtained by our own investigation, compared the present condition of the prison at Folsom and its management with the condition of affairs as shown to exist by the reports of former years, and we find a result complimentary to the management and advantageous to the State of California, not only from a financial standpoint, but in the general welfare of the prison, and in the progress made in the conduct of a penological institution.

We find Warden Aull to be deserving of great credit in the management of the prison, and the carrying out of the trust reposed in him by law. He is fully conversant with his duties, and was able to give to your committee full and intelligent information regarding the requirements of the prison, as likewise to afford us an opportunity to make a full and complete investigation.

The captains of the yard, guards, commissary, physician, and other officers of the prison at Folsom we also commend for the conscientious and thorough manner in which they have performed their respective duties.

MAHONEY, Chairman.

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE.

The following report of special committee was received and read:

SACRAMENTO, CAL., March 18, 1897.

MR. PRESIDENT: Your committee appointed by resolution of the Senate, passed on the 1st day of March, 1897, to make a full and complete investigation as to the truth of the charges and statements contained in that certain article published in the Examiner, a daily newspaper, printed and published in the City and County of San Francisco, State of California, which article was so published on the 27th day of February, 1897, and which article is headed "Bribery in Aid of Thievery," beg leave to report as follows, in addition to the report heretofore made:

That your committee has held eleven meetings; that at its first meeting, A. M. Lawrence, Esq., managing editor of the Examiner; L. L. Levings, a reporter for said paper, on duty at the State Capitol, and also Al. Murphy, Franklin Hichborn, C. H. Jessen, and L. Alexander, also reporters of said paper on duty at the State Capitol, were subpoenaed and called as witnesses, your committee deeming it a proper method of procedure to begin with those whom they believe to be responsible for the statements and charges published as aforesaid; that from the examination of these witnesses no information was elicited that throws any light upon the statements and charges mentioned, except to the effect that they had been made entirely on hearsay and idle rumor. Three of the witnesses, A. M. Lawrence, L. L. Levings, and Al. Murphy, declined to answer certain questions propounded to them by the committee, and were reported to and brought before the bar of this Senate, and two of them, to wit: A. M. Lawrence and L. L. Levings, were committed for contempt in not having answered the questions asked them, and have not yet purged themselves thereof, nor endeavored to do so. The proceedings regarding the contempt already fully appear upon the Journals of the Senate.

The managers of the Western Union Telegraph Company and of the Pacific Postal Telegraph Company appeared before your committee, in obedience to subpoenas requiring them to produce all telegrams passing to and from certain members of the Legislature and other parties, within certain dates; two of said subpoenas were issued at the request of the representatives of the Examiner, by which subpoenas they desired to have produced all telegrams, without reference to their subject-matter, which had passed during the sixty days immediately preceding the investigation by and between all of the members of the Senate and all of the members of the Assembly who were recorded as having voted for Assembly Bill No. 273, that being the bill mentioned and referred to in the aforesaid article.

The managers of said telegraph companies appeared before your committee and objected to being required to produce the telegrams as aforesaid, because they had no authority to do so, and because it is contrary to law for them to do so; that they would produce any particular telegram or telegrams from any particular person to or from any other particular person that might be specified with such particularity as to date and subject-matter as would enable them to find a telegram or telegrams, should any exist. After consideration by your committee, your committee sustained the objection, and at various times during the examination also requested of the representatives of the Examiner, who frequently appeared before your committee, that if they would specify the name or names of any person or persons, together with the date or approximate date of the sending or receipt of any telegrams, and that such telegram had reference in any manner to Assembly Bill No. 273, the committee would require the production of such telegram or telegrams, but no further information was given. Your committee, as a consequence, had no information upon which to proceed in the matter of the investigation, as the parties who had made the charges and statements, as in said article set forth, declined to give the source or sources of their information, and we therefore concluded to, and did, examine each and every one of the forty Senators constituting this body, and the most searching questions were put to each and every one of them regarding the reasons why he had voted for or against Assembly Bill No. 273 when it was under consideration in the Senate; also, as to whether he had been influenced by any corrupt or improper motives in voting for or against the said bill; also, as to whether he had received any telegram or telegrams, letters or communications of any kind regarding the matter, and as a result we find that but one telegram was received regarding Assembly Bill No. 273, and that was the one received by the Senator from Santa Clara, which telegram is in the possession of the committee of the Assembly investigating like charges. The Senator appeared before the committee and fully explained the circumstances and the reason why he had voted as he did concerning Assembly Bill No. 273, and also the receipt of the said telegram, and his explanations were and are entirely satisfactory to your committee, and there is no reason or cause why his actions or motives concerning Assembly Bill No. 273 can be impugned or questioned as to their honesty and sincerity.

The evidence also discloses that the Senator from Tehama and Butte received a letter from Mr. Cross, one of the trustees of the Hobart estate, asking him to support Assembly Bill No. 273. Mr. Cross had long been acquainted with the Senator to whom he wrote, and the Senator fully explains the matter, and his honesty and integrity in the premises are not in the least degree impugned, or the subject, even, of adverse comment, the letter being simply a friendly communication.

Your committee find from the testimony that one of the chief reasons for the activity displayed in support of the bill, which was not unusual activity in legislation, arose from the fact that the united bar of Madera County had requested the passage of such a bill, and had caused the same to be introduced by the Senator representing their district, which bill was allowed to lapse because Assembly Bill No. 273 came into the Senate about the time the Madera bill was under consideration, and took its place. Other Senators voted for it because their personal experience appealed to them to do so, and the remainder, because they believed it to be a good bill, and many who voted against it stated that they favored the principle of the bill, but that they considered it too broad in its provisions, and that, had the amendments which were proposed, and which were as follows:

"Senator Pedlar moved that Senator Seawell be appointed a special committee of one to amend the bill as follows;

"Insert after line 23, Section 1, the following:

"Provided further, that no person shall be allowed to file more than one such affidavit as is mentioned in subdivision four of this section."

"Also: Renumber succeeding line in Section 1."

AYES AND NOES.

"The ayes and noes were demanded by Senators Seawell, Pedlar, and Bulla.

"The roll was called, and the motion to amend lost by the following vote:

"AYES—Senators Aram, Bulla, Chapman, Dickinson, Flint, Jones, La Rue, Luchsinger, Pedlar, Seawell, Stratton, and Withington—12.

"NOES—Senators Androus, Bert, Dwyer, Feeney, Gillette, Hall, Henderson, Holloway, Langford, Linder, Mahoney, Morehouse, Prisk, Shine, Simpson, Smith, Toner, Trout, Voorheis, and Wolfe—20.

"Senator Withington moved that Senator Simpson be appointed a committee of one to amend the bill as follows:

"Amend by inserting in Section 1, line 12, before the word 'that,' the words 'filed before the trial, but not more than once.'

AYES AND NOES.

"The ayes and noes were demanded by Senators Braunhart, Luchsinger, and Pedlar.

"The roll was called, and the motion to amend lost by the following vote:

"AYES—Senators Aram, Braunhart, Chapman, Denison, Dickinson, Doty, Jones, La Rue, Luchsinger, Pedlar, Seawell, Stratton, and Withington—13.

"Nones—Senators Androus, Gillette, Bert, Bulla, Dwyer, Feeney, Flint, Hall, Henderson, Holloway, Langford, Linder, Mahoney, Morehouse, Prisk, Shine, Simpson, Smith, Toner, Trout, Voorheis, and Wolfe—22."

Been adopted they would have supported the bill. And your committee is of the opinion that the entire Senate was in favor of the principle sought to be put in force by the bill, and that there was no bribery or corruption, or undue influence or attempt at bribery or corruption of any kind or description, in connection with the said bill, or with the action by any Senator thereon, and that the charges and statements made in said article in the Examiner were and are groundless and devoid of truth, in so far as bribery, attempt at bribery, corruption, attempt at corruption, or the use of undue influence in influencing the vote or conduct of any Senator connected with the said bill is concerned.

All of the witnesses who appeared before the committee were duly sworn and testified; their testimony was taken down by stenographers, has been transcribed, and is herewith filed.

Respectfully submitted.

DICKINSON,
SEAWELL,
ARAM,
Committee.

The District Courts of Appeal shall have the same jurisdiction to hear and determine the appeals so transferred as appeals taken directly to them. The statutes now in force allowing providing for and regulating appeals to the Supreme Court shall apply to appeals to the District Courts of Appeal so far as consistent with this article until the Legislature shall make provisions for appeals to said courts.

SEC. 8. Whenever and so often as any Justice of a District Court of Appeal shall be disqualified or unable to act in any case within its jurisdiction, the Chief Justice may appoint a Judge of a Superior Court who has not acted in the cause in the court below to act as a Justice pro tempore of such District Court of Appeal in place and stead of such disqualified Justice. A Justice of one District Court of Appeal may at any time sit as a Justice pro tempore in any other District Court of Appeal upon the written request of any Justice of said court. Every Justice pro tempore of a District Court of Appeal while acting as such shall have the same power and authority as a Justice of such court.

SEC. 9. The judgments and decrees of the District Courts of Appeal shall be final excepting only that if a decision of a District Court of Appeal be considered by the Supreme Court to be in conflict with an existing and not overruled decision of the same court or of another District Court of Appeal or of the Supreme Court as at any time constituted then within thirty days after the entry of judgment in the District Court of Appeal the Supreme Court may in its discretion order the record to be transmitted to it and thereupon and thereafter shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine the appeal.

Courts must in every stage of an action disregard any error or defect in the pleadings or proceedings or in the course of a trial or motion for a new trial which does not affect the substantial rights of the parties; and no judgment or order shall be reversed or affected by reason of any such error or defect.

SEC. 12. Unless oral argument be waived by the parties every cause and matter in the Supreme Court, and in any District Court of Appeal except such applications as may be made ex parte shall be orally argued by the parties or their counsel in open court; but this shall not prevent the courts from requiring that the points to be argued and considered, together with a list of authorities to sustain such points, shall be printed and filed before a cause is taken up for argument. COMMUNICATIONS.

The following communications were read, and ordered printed in the Journal:

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., March 17, 1897.

To the honorable Members of the Senate and Assembly of the State of California:

GENTLEMEN: The Merchants' Association of San Francisco earnestly requests your favorable action upon Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 35, amending Article XI of the Constitution of the State by adding a new section thereto, to be known as No. 5½, relating to consolidated city and county governments.

This amendment to the Constitution is absolutely essential to the proper operation of the government of San Francisco. It will extricate this city from its dual capacity of both a city and a county. This uncertain condition has confused the laws governing this municipality, and unless thus altered will result in serious complications.

Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 35 has had the unanimous indorsement of the Board of Supervisors of this city and county, as well as of the Merchants' Association, and we sincerely hope that you will submit it to the electors of the State.

Very respectfully yours,

MERCHANTS' ASSOCIATION.

F. W. DOHRMANN, President.

[SEAL.] J. RICHARD FREUD, Secretary.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 18, 1897.

To the President of the State Senate, Sacramento, Cal.:

DEAR SIR: A pure food congress is to be held in this city, at the Chamber of Commerce rooms, to convene Friday, April 30th, at 10 A. M. Delegates to the said congress are to be invited from various parts of the State. You are most respectfully invited to attend the said congress, and a general invitation is extended to the members of the Senate, as it is desired to arrange for a systematic method of enforcing the laws against adulteration in foods throughout this State.

The Board of Health of San Francisco has done great work in this regard, but this movement is so vast in its bearing upon the health as well as the industries of our State, that it is desired that the members of the Legislature from different parts of the State will interest themselves in the proposed congress.

Trusting that this will be laid before your Senate, and that a good representation will be present at the congress, we remain,

Yours very truly,

MANUFACTURERS AND PRODUCERS' ASSOCIATION OF CALIFORNIA.
By ISIDOR JACOBS, Committee on Correspondence.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE.

Senator Bulla explained his vote upon Assembly Bill No. 410, as follows:

I vote no.

First—Because a large proportion of these claims are fraudulent.

Second—Because a large proportion of these claims are held by persons who purchased them at prices far below their face value.

Third—Because it is beyond the ability or power of the State Board of Examiners to ascertain what claims are fraudulent and what just.

Fourth—If a bill were drawn making an appropriation to pay to the present holders of these claims the amounts which they paid for them, I should vote for it, but I decline to vote away nearly $300,000 of the people's money to pay claims a part of which are admittedly fraudulent, and most of the remainder are held by persons who paid but a small fraction of their face value for them.

It appearing from the roll call that the vote on the final passage of Assembly Bill No. 410 was a tie vote, Senator Smith requested the President to cast the deciding vote.

The President stated:

Assuming that the statements as to the State Board of Examiners' report in connection with this bill are true; that the whole matter was examined by the Board of Examiners, and acted upon, and this bill drawn by the direction of the Board of Examiners, and the appropriation named in the bill recommended by the board after an investigation of these claims; and further, "that there being no question of the State's obligation to pay all just claims," the Chair will give the casting vote herein, "aye." I will further state that I do this because I think it is a bill that should go to the Governor.

Whereupon the President, exercising his prerogative, voted "aye," and declared Assembly Bill No. 410 finally passed.

Whereupon the following proceedings were had:

Senator Morehouse: "A point of order, Mr. President."

Lieutenant-Governor Jeter: "State your point of order."

Senator Morehouse: "Under Section 15 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, every bill must receive a majority vote of all the members elected to either house. That is the Constitution, and under these circumstances, I desire to call the attention of the President of this body to it."

Senator Simpson: "Mr. President, I desire to make this point in answer to the gentleman from Santa Clara: That by virtue of his office, having been elected or appointed as Lieutenant-Governor of the State of California, the President of this body is, for the purposes of casting an untieing vote, a member of this body, and has a right to cast that vote. That is strictly in accordance with the Constitution of this State."

Lieutenant-Governor Jeter: "Whatever there is in the point made by Senator Morehouse, some other tribunal than this will have to pass upon; the Chair will not assume to pass upon it."

Senator Morehouse: "I refer especially to the last few lines of the section, which is Section 15 of Article IV, as I stated before: 'Any bill may originate in either house, but may be amended or rejected by the other; and on the final passage of all bills, they shall be read at length, and the vote shall be by yeas and nays upon each bill separately, and shall be entered on the Journal; and no bill shall become a law without the concurrence of a majority of the members elected to each house.'"

Lieutenant-Governor Jeter: "The record will show the fact."

Senator Morehouse: "That is all I want."

Lieutenant-Governor Jeter: "The record does show that there were twenty votes for the bill and twenty votes against the bill, other than the vote of the Chair. You will have the benefit of the point, but I shall not pass upon it."

Senator Simpson: "I suppose the only point involved in that is, that the Senator from Santa Clara wanted to bring that to the attention of the presiding officer of this body, and if he passed upon it as a finality, that he would refuse to certify it to the Governor. I think it should be certified to the Governor, and let the Governor take the responsibility."

Senator Morehouse: "All right. I simply want the record to show the facts. That is all."

Lieutenant-Governor Jeter: "The Chair is not inclined to shirk any responsibility that devolves upon him, but does not propose to assume that which belongs to somebody else."

Title read and approved.

The undersigned desire a protest entered in the Journal of this day against the vote by which Assembly Bill No. 327 was defeated, for the following reasons:

That said bill duly passed the Senate at the morning session by a vote of 21 to 13; that after the passage of said bill, Senator Morehouse moved a reconsideration of the same, to which objection was made under Rule XXXII of the standing rules of the Senate, on the ground that no such motion could be made on this day, this being the day preceding the last day of the session as fixed by joint resolution heretofore adopted by both the Senate and Assembly.

That no motion can be made to reconsider any vote passed on this day, and for that reason the reconsideration of that vote was unlawful, against the rules of the Senate, and the action taken on the bill at the morning session when it passed the Senate by a vote of 21 to 13 was final.

CONSIDERATION OF GOVERNOR'S APPOINTMENTS.

Consideration of the confirmation of the appointment of George T. Bohen as Pilot Commissioner.

The following report was received and read:

SACRAMENTO, March 20, 1897.

To the President of the Senate:

The undersigned, acting as a committee on behalf of the majority in the Senate, having investigated the causes looking to the appointment of George T. Bohen, as Pilot Commissioner, find that the removal of Captain John Hackett from that office involves no reflection whatever on his personal or official integrity. The Executive expressly so states to this committee. Since filing our report with the majority of the Senate, recommending that the appointment of Mr. Bohen be not confirmed, we have, upon further consideration, become convinced that it will not be good policy, nor promote the harmony or efficiency of the State government, to insist that the present administration retain in office an officer who is a person non grata, and with whom the Executive of the State is not in accord. We therefore withdraw all objections to the confirmation of Mr. Bohen as such Pilot Commissioner.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The following message from the Governor was received and read:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, }
SACRAMENTO, March 20, 1897. }

To the honorable the Legislature of the State of California:

GENTLEMEN: Every dollar of taxes imposed on the people of this State in excess of the amount provided by Assembly Bill No. 990 will, in my judgment, be an unnecessary burden. Forty and one half cents on every $100 of the present assessed value of the property of this State will raise, with funds in the treasury, and available on July 1, 1897, more than sufficient to meet the demands of this government for the forty-ninth fiscal year, and sufficient to meet them for the fiftieth fiscal year. Even the amount raised by this bill would have been unnecessary, and a tax levy of less than 32 cents per $100 on said valuation would have sufficed had my recommendation as to income taxes been adopted.

The professed apprehension that my successor may have to meet a deficiency is illy founded, and in view of the fact that this administration inherited over $1,000,000 of deficiencies, debts, and obligations from past administrations, which it has or will be able to pay, and yet reduced the tax on the people far below its party pledge, ought to convince your honorable bodies that it will so handle the finances as to leave them in sound condition at the expiration of its term. The only ground for apprehension must lie in the fact that your honorable bodies have departed from a long established law as to deficiencies, and endeavored to make it more easy to create them by providing that a majority of the Board of Examiners may create a deficiency where a full board was required heretofore; thus making it possible, if the provision in the General Appropriation Act be held valid, to create such deficiencies in defiance of the Governor, who alone is responsible under the Constitution for the execution of the laws and the general management of State institutions. While this might be good politics, it is certainly bad financiering, and although I have no apprehension that under present conditions any harm will follow, financial disaster may in the future, under other boards and other circumstances, if the law be held valid.

You are on the eve of adjournment, and leave on my hands the general and other appropriation bills. Any item or bill may be absolutely defeated now by my veto, and I assume the responsibility of so reducing the amount as, with the funds available on July 1, 1897, and the amount to be raised by Assembly Bill No. 990, to be sufficient for the needs of this government for the next two fiscal years, excepting extraordinary unforeseen demands; and should the majority of the Board of Examiners deem it necessary to create deficiencies in excess of this amount, to be paid in the future, I assure you it will be more satisfactory to the taxpayers than to have the burdens imposed during these hard times, and money needlessly locked up in the treasury, as it is now.

I invited the Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, with the Controller, to meet in consultation as to these figures, and as a result of that conference I showed, from the Controller's own figures, that a levy of 40½ cents per $100 of valuation would be amply sufficient.

I invited the Chairman of the Finance Committee of the Senate to meet me with the Finance Committee, and insisted on his bringing the Controller with him, stating that I could show, from the Controller's own figures, in the Controller's presence, that the bill in the House was sufficient. The Chairman and members of his committee did appear, but he stated that the Controller had another engagement and could not appear.

I have the figures from the Controller, and I insist that, with the money which will remain unexpended on July 1, 1897, the amount provided for in the Assembly bill is sufficient to run this government, unless the same be wasted.

I regret that, under the rules of your bodies, adopted early in the session, these appropriation bills have been held back to the last minute, otherwise by my veto I would have been able to have given the exact figures from the appropriations allowed, and would have been able, by a veto message to your honorable bodies, to have shown such figures, and also to have shown that even less than the amount appropriated would be necessary.

If the bill for the amount desired to be raised by the Chairman of the Finance Committee of the Senate be sent to me, I will be unable to approve it, and I desire, in advance, to inform your honorable bodies of this fact, in order that any responsibility for your not transmitting to me a bill for no more than the amount necessary to run the government for the next two years, may not rest upon me. Under present financial conditions it is inadvisable to raise any more than is absolutely necessary. Idle money should never be accumulated in the public treasury, as it is a well-known fact that it is a constant temptation to extravagance.

I decline to assume the responsibility for any complications or expense which may result from your sending me an excessive tax levy.

JAMES H. BUDD, Governor.

To the honorable Senate of the State of California:

GENTLEMEN: I return Senate Bill No. 8 without my consent, and with my objections thereto.

One D. M. Delmas, a lawyer, in effect stated recently in court that said bill was designed to and would close the mouth of his client as a witness in important pending litigation, and that it only awaited the signature of opposing associate counsel to accomplish that purpose.

Under the circumstance I cannot approve the bill, and in justice to the Legislature and myself I append a copy of the following letter.

JAMES H. BUDD, Governor.

SACRAMENTO, March 20, 1897.

HON. JAMES H. BUDD, Governor:

MY DEAR SIR: In response to your request regarding the authorship of Senate Bill No. 8, introduced by me at the present session of the Legislature, I will state that I received the same by mail from General A. L. Hart, of San Francisco, he stating to me that the bill had been drawn by D. M. Delmas, Esq., of San Francisco.

From conversations since had with General Hart and others, I do not think there is any question regarding the truth of such statement.

Respectfully,

(Signed:) EUGENE ARAM.

To the honorable Senate of the State of California:

GENTLEMEN: I return herewith Senate Bill No. 198 without my approval, and with my objections thereto. Two bills, having for their purpose the regulation of the width of tires upon wagons to be used upon the public highways of this State, reached me March 9th. This bill regulates the width of such tires according to the carrying capacity of the wagons, while Assembly Bill No. 157 graduates them according to the size of the axles of the wagons. Upon consideration I have concluded that the Assembly bill provides the more reasonable classification, and one which could most easily be determined, and I have approved it. Violations of these kind of statutes would be most frequent in rural districts where scales would not be available to determine the actual weight of the load the wagons were carrying. The prosecutions would be in Justices' Courts, and in the absence of a determination by weight, the presumption of innocence prevailing in favor of the accused, a conviction could seldom be had. The size of an axle can easily and quickly be determined; owners of wagons could always be apprised of their rights and liabilities, and a scale of widths upon that basis is the more reasonable and just. Having approved the other bill, to avoid a conflict, I return this bill without my approval.

JAMES H. BUDD, Governor.

Resolved by the Senate, the Assembly concurring. That the Legislature of the State of California, at its regular session, commencing on the fourth day of January, Anno Domini eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, two thirds of all the members elected to each house concurring, hereby recommend that the electors of the State vote at the next general election upon the proposition to call a convention to revise the State Constitution, such proposition to read as follows:

Two thirds of the members elected to each branch of the Legislature for the thirty-second session of the Legislature of the State of California, commencing on the fourth day of January, Anno Domini eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, do hereby recommend to the electors of the State to vote at the next general election for or against a convention for the purpose of revising the Constitution of the State. Such vote to be taken for the reason that two thirds of the members of each branch of the Legislature, at said regular thirty-second session, deem it necessary to revise such Constitution. Hereby further recommend that the convention to be called for such revision of the Constitution shall consist of eighty delegates, one to be chosen from each Assembly district. If it shall appear from the returns of the County Clerks and Registrar of Voters that a majority of the electors voting at such general election on the proposition for a convention shall have voted in favor of calling such convention, it shall be the duty of the Governor to forthwith issue his proclamation, announcing the fact that such convention has been called; and thereupon, it shall be the duty of the Legislature, at its session next after such election, to provide by law for the election of delegates to such convention, and for the holding thereof at the state capitol. All vacancies in the offices of delegates to be filled in the same manner as vacancies in the office of Assemblyman, and all contests over the election of delegates to be determined by the convention. Such convention to meet within three months from the date of the election calling it, and shall continue in session until it shall have completed the work of revision, and provided for submitting the same to the electors for approval or rejection.

APPROVAL OF JOURNAL.

The minutes (Journal) of Saturday, March 20, 1897, were approved.

ADJOURNMENT SINE DIE.

Senator Dickinson moved that the Senate do now adjourn sine die.

The President of the Senate, Lieutenant-Governor Jeter, in stating the question, said:

The question before the Senate is the motion to adjourn sine die. Preliminary to the final vote upon the question, I ask the indulgence of the Senate for a moment, whilst I again thank you as a body, and as individual members, for the courtesy and exceptional consideration at all times extended to me. I have been profoundly impressed with your constant and unfailing patience, kindness, and manifestations of friendship from the very beginning to the close of this session.

In attempting to conscientiously discharge the duties devolving upon the presiding officer, I have had the support and assistance of your efficient President pro tem, and competent Secretary—always ready and obliging, their valuable knowledge and experience have at all times been at my command, and whatever of success has attended my earnest efforts to be absolutely impartial and fair, should be credited to this source of assistance, and the friendly attitude of you, gentlemen of the Senate.

It is worthy of mention that in the excitement always incident to debate in deliberative bodies not a single breach of decorum has occurred—not an appeal has been taken or a suggestion of appeal been made from any decision of the Chair; the disposition of the members, through the entire session, being manifest to attend strictly to the responsible work of enacting good laws, and defeating dangerous legislation, in a businesslike and honorable way, without waste of time on trivial things, and your independence, intelligence, and integrity have been most marked, a credit to our State, and deserving of the highest commendation.

I assumed the duties of presiding officer as a stranger to the greater number of the members, inexperienced in legislative procedure, and your constant aim has seemed to be to make my work light and agreeable in every possible way. All of this I gratefully appreciate. I have acquired much useful knowledge, and the friends I have found have taken possession of my heart in a way that cannot find expression in words. I ask you to accept and bear with you to your homes my sincere gratitude, good will, and respect.

The hour of twelve o'clock noon having arrived, I now declare the Senate of the thirty-second session of the Legislature of the State of California adjourned sine die.

WILLIAM T. JETER,
President of the Senate.

F. J. BRANDON,
Secretary of the Senate.
JOHN L. CHILDS,
Minute Clerk of the Senate.
THEODORE A. SIMPSON,
Journal Clerk of the Senate.
